Senior Center trips

The Perquimans County Senior Center has a trip planned for Friday, June 23 to visit Tangier Island. We will depart the Center at 5:30 a.m., stop for a quick breakfast on your own, then on for the cruise to Tangier. We will eat lunch at the Chesapeake House on the island, then tour the island as you would like until around 3 p.m. when we will return. We will stop for a dutch-treat dinner on the way home. Cost per person is $49 which includes bus fare, cruise and lunch. Deadline to sign up and pay is May 31.

Our next trip is on Friday, July 21 to the Crystal Coast Passion Play, "Worthy is The Lamb," in Swansboro. We will depart the center at 1 p.m. and travel to New Bern for dinner on your own. The program, which takes place along the White Oak River, is a musical drama of the life of Christ. We will return home after the play. Cost per person is $30. Deadline to sign up and pay is June 20.

Call 426-5404 for more trip information or Senior Center happenings.

Murphy named executive chef at Pavo's Restaurant

Michael Murphy has been named executive chef at Pavo's restaurant at Albemarle Plantation, the 1600-acre golf and marine community near Hertford.

Owned by Kathryn and Grant Burgess of Elizabeth City, Pavo's is open daily for lunch and for dinner by reservation. It is located at the Albemarle Plantation Clubhouse overlooking the Albemarle Sound and the 18th hole of the Dan Maples-designed Sound Golf Links.

Murphy specializes in California cuisine with a French accent on presentation.

Murphy comes to Albemarle Plantation from the South Carolina resort communities of Hilton Head, Daufuski Island, and Palm Island, where he served as manager and executive chef for several restaurants.

Plantation names sales manager

Don Proffit has been named sales manager at Albemarle Plantation, the 1600-acre-golf and marina community near Hertford.

Proffit joined the Albemarle Plantation staff in 1993. He has extensive real estate experience in resort and golf community sales on the Outer Banks and in Northeastern North Carolina. He and wife Robin live with their three Labrador retrievers in Elizabeth City.

Albemarle Plantation recorded its best sales performance of its five-year history in 1994, with $6 million in sales. Proffit is optimistic that 1995 will top another record-breaking year.

The community features the Sound golf Links designed by noted golf course architect

Dan Maples and a 212-slip marine, one of the largest private marinas between Norfolk and Charleston.

Learning Center plans Family Fun Day

Perquimans County Learning Center in Winfall will hold a Family Fun Day on Saturday, June 10, 10 a.m.-6 p.m. The Fun Day is free. Events will include music by D.J. Joc of Winfall, a cookout, and several contests to include: dance, rap, b-bob, comedy, and song (gospel and rhythm/blues).

All contest participants will appear on stage for 5-7 minutes. The crowd will judge each competition. Contest fees are $10 per individual and $20 per group. The first and second place winners of each category will receive a trophy. All participants will receive participation prizes.

The Family Fun Day is the first of several family events that will be held at Perquimans County Learning Center. All funds raised will be used to renovate space for a Family Resource Center at the Perquimans Learning Center. The Family Resource Center will be a onestop, centralized source for family services which may be provided through information, referral, on-site, or home-based strategies. The Resource Center will be a comprehensive array of collaborative family support program.
