U.S. A.F. Combat Command Heritage of America Jazz Ensemble

Free concert set

Perquimans County's observance of the 50th anniversary of World War II will culminate with a concert on Tuesday, Sept. 19. The U.S. Air Force Air Combat Command Heritage of American Jazz Ensemble of Langley Air Force Base, Virginia will present music from the World War II era at Perquimans High School. The program begins at 7:30 p.m. Attendees should be seated by 7:15. There is no charge to attend the performance; however, only 400 seats are available.

The program is sponsored by the Perquimans County World War II Commemoration Committee and the N.C. Chapter, Veterans of Underage Military Service.

Swindell's plans cremation information program

A program entitled "EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT CREMATION BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK" will be presented on Sunday, Sept. 10 at 4 p.m. in the Chapel of Swindell Funeral Home, Hertford.

The program will consist of a presentation with question and answer time. Brochures and a video will be available. Following the program there will be an open house of Swindell's facilities with special emphasis on their recently constructed selection room for the display of cremation caskets, urns and vaults.

Because of the increasing acceptance and usage of cremation, many people have unanswered questions regarding the options available and prices of cremation. Swindell Funeral Home, in recognizing this trend and considering the needs of the area, has spent a lot of time and effort developing a variety of options in both services and merchandise.

If you have ever considered or had questions regarding any aspect of cremation, this will be your opportunity to learn "EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT CREMATION BUT WERE AFRAID TO ASK."
