Unwanted paint will be accepted free from residents. Also, persons wanting paint may pick some up. Persons dropping off paint are urged to arrive as early as possible during this event. This free event is designed to accept paint only, and will not accept varnishes, thinners, or other hazardous waste. The event is sponsored by Albemarle Regional Solid Waste Management Authority. For questions, call 297-3300.

Used coat drive

The Perquimans High School S.A.D.D. Club is sponsoring a used coat drive. Used, clean coats for children, youth and adults will be collected and distributed to those in need. Drop-off points are the high school, Woodard's Pharmacy, The Perquimans Weekly office and Dr. Jack Boone's office. Tags will be pinned to the back of each coat distributed bearing a S.A.D.D. awareness message. Old Towels and bath mats will also be accepted for donation to the animal shelter.

Happenings is published each week in The Perquimans Weekly as a community service.

Weddings

Mr. and Mrs. John Vivian Matthews III

Matthews- Buffington

Amanda Kay Buffington and John V. (Matt) Matthews III were married on Aug. 5 at 3 p.m. at Barnetts Creek Baptist Church, Thomasville, Ga. The Rev. William T. Majors officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Jerry and Nancy Buffington of Pine Park, Ga. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Page Lewis of Thomasville and the late Mr. Lewis.

The groom is the son of John and Darla Matthews of Hertford. He is the grandson of Mrs. Janie Crayton of Hertford and the late J.J. Crayton of Mt. Pleasant, and Mr. Vivian Matthews of Hertford and the late Spivey Matthews.

Given in marriage by her parents and escorted by her father, the bride's gown was of silk Shantung with pearl-edged, deep scooped neckline and short tapered sleeves. The bodice was covered with pearls and French satin sequins. The back of the gown was decorated with a large bow accented with clustered beads and ended in a chapel-length train. The fingertip veil of illusion fell from a barrett covered with silk loops accented with beaded leaflets. The bride carried a nosegay of minuettes, tineke, and jacaranda roses and baby's breath.

Maids of honor were Michelle Allen and Rhonda Allen of Pine Park, cousins of the bride.

Bridesmaids were Brandi Beasley and Emily Eckels of Thomasville, Ga.; Laura Matthews of Hertford, sister of the groom; and Karla Bivins of Leesburg, Ga.

The attendants wore floor length sheath gowns of ruby Shantung with beautiful sweetheart neckline trimmed by a wide braid. Off-the-shoulder sleeves were short. Bridesmaids and honor attendants carried arm bouquets of minuettes roses and baby's breath tied with picote and lace ribbon.

The groom's father served as best man. Ushers were Crayton G. Matthews of Hertford, brother of the groom; Lee Buffington of Pine Park, brother of the bride; James P. Schwankle of Siler City; W. Ruffin Bailey of Rock Hill, S.C.; Andrew M. Crocker of Fayetteville; and Chad W. Rehder of Raleigh.

The wedding was directed by Linda Stringer of Pine Park.

Wedding music was presented by Kathryn Upton and soloist Emily Eckels.

A reception in the church fellowship hall followed the ceremony.

The couple honeymooned in Washington, D.C.

The bride is a graduate of Georgia Southern University in Statesboro, Ga. and is currently a graduate student in Mathematics at N.C. State University.

The groom is a graduate of Perquimans High School and N.C. State University. He is a graduate student in Mathematics at N.C. State.
