Sawyer addresses Woodmen

Bill Sawyer, a Driver Education Specialist with the N.C. Department of Motor Vehicles, presented a program on school bus safety and transportation of students at the Woodmen of the World Lodge meeting last Thursday night.

Sawyer told how adult school bus drivers were selected and trained in safety and handling buses in the Albemarle Region that he covers for DMV. He stated that North Carolina school bus system has one of the best safety records in the nation. Sawyer works closely with Dwayne Stallings, assistant principal at Perquimans County High School, and Richard O'Neal, district transportation director.

The Woodmen of the World Lodge 463 in Hertford presents Safe Bus Driver Awards each year. In June 1996, Lodge 463 presented about 50 awards to the Perquimans drivers. Woodmen 463 President Aloha Vann said that in co-operation with George Rice, the area Woodmen Representative will again present the Safe Bus Driver Awards in 1997.
