And you're not even the one with Alzheimer's.

Alzheimer's is no ordinary disease. It requires specialized care and a customized setting that can bring about small miracles that are impossible to achieve at home.

At Carolina House, our Discovery Program specializes in caring for those with Alzheimer's and other forms of memory impairment. From the foremost levels of staff training to expertly designed living environments, we believe there is simply no place that can offer your loved one this kind of superior care and impressive results. With around-the-clock professional supervision, our residents are empowered to achieve goals you never thought they could.

The tragedy of Alzheimer's disease is never lessened - but that doesn't mean you can't live with the peacefulness and satisfaction that comes from knowing you have chosen the best for both of you.
