Parksville Ruritans celebrate club's 50th anniversary

Parksville Township Ruritan Club celebrated 50 years of serving the community in April.

Two of the six living charter members joined the celebration, charter president Floyd Matthews and George Baker. Each received plaques and pins from Ruritan National President Rick Poff, who was assisted by local president Gil Underwood.

Also on hand for the occasion were National Director Donise Ayers, national Treasurer George Winslow, National Foundation Chairman Robin Davenport, past National President Frank Guthrie, past National Directors Willis Proctor and Harry Lee Winslow, and District Governor Fostir Parrish.

The evening included a memorial to the deceased members by Rev. Steve Saunders and entertainment by Rev. Jon Strother.
