FESTIVALS 2002

The Ellis Temple Praise Dancers opened the entertainment at Winfall Landing Park.

The entertainment was great at Indian Summer Festival 2002. Festival-goers took to the streets to shake a leg to the music of the bands downtown.

Bargain hunters and antique lovers gathered on Market Street Saturday afternoon for the very successful Antique Dealers Association of Perquimans County live auction.

The younger set slid to fun at Missing Mill Park.

The Perquimans County Middle School eighth grade band was a big hit at Winfall Landing Park, a new venue for Indian Summer Festival.

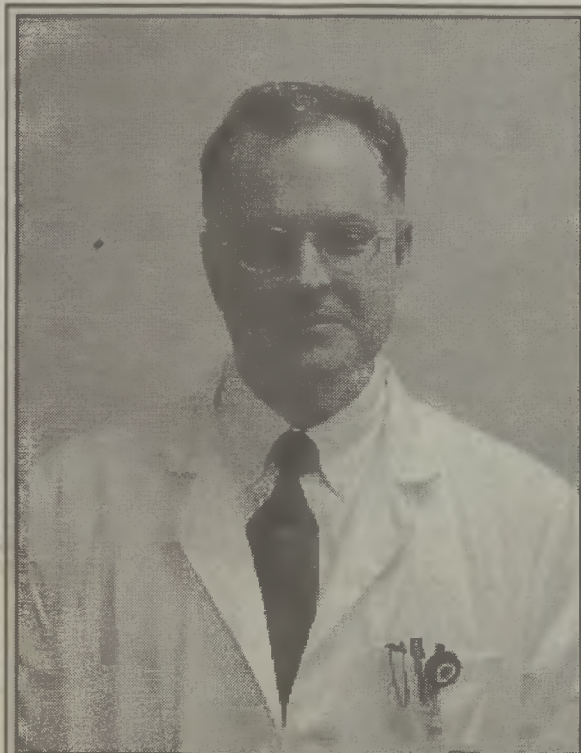

The Atlantic Fleet Band was one of the biggest crowd-pleasers downtown.

Youth enjoyed friendly battles at Missing Mill Park, pushing and punching with air-filled weapons.
