Summer Breeze music series starts June 8

"Bluegrass and Barbecue" is the theme for the season's first Summer Breeze Concert, set for Sunday, June 8 at 5:30 p.m. on the beautiful grounds of Hertford's historic 1730 Newbold-White House.

The popular acoustic folk and bluegrass band "Out In The Cold," featuring a mandolin, guitar, banjo and bass guitar, is sure to set toes to tapping.

Barbecue plates from Captain Bob's will be available to complete the experience. Plates are $6 each and must be reserved in advance by calling 426-7567.

The Summer Breeze Concerts are sponsored by the Perquimans County Restoration Association and Perquimans Arts League and are made possible with support from Ferguson Enterprises and Crossroads Music. There is no fee for the three-concert series, but donations will be accepted.

The second performance in the Summer Breeze Concert series is on Sunday, July 20 and will feature the Los Saxofonistas from the North Carolina School of the Arts.

Los Saxofonistas is a saxophone quartet that performs a varied repertoire of high-energy music.

Tickets for dinner plates to enjoy during the concert will be available in advance.

Tommy's Restaurant in Hertford will prepare the dinners.

The concert series will conclude on Sunday, August 13, with the music of George Higgs. Higgs, a 1993 North Carolina Folk Heritage Award winner, is recognized as one of the finest musicians in the Piedmont Blues Tradition. He performs on harmonica and guitar.

All three concerts will begin at 5:30 p.m. and will last about one hour.

Bring blankets, lawn chairs and a picnic for this casual outdoor family concert. Please call ahead to confirm performances.

The Newbold-White House is open for tours on Sundays from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The grounds will open at 5 p.m. for the concert.

For more information call the Newbold-White House at 426-7567 or nbwh@inteliport.com.
