CELEBRATIONS

New arrival

Dakota Hunter Sawyer

Jami Harrell and Jason Sawyer of Camden announce the birth of their son, Dakota Hunter Sawyer on April 28, 2003, at Sentara Norfolk General Hospital. The baby weighed 2lbs 6oz and was 15 inches long.

Maternal grandparents are Shelia Spear of Hertford and Pat Harrell Jr. of Portsmouth, Va.

Paternal grandparents are Bonnie and Debbie Sawyer of Camden.

This Pia hydrangea is one of many species that can be viewed at a garden open house and plant sale at the home of Bob and Carolyn Hess Sunday.

Garden open house and plant sale set

The Albemarle Environmental Association will hold a free Garden Open House and Plant Sale at the home of Bob and Carolyn Hess on Sunday, June 1 from 1 - 5 p.m. Gardens are designed to introduce people to native and near-native landscaping and the plant sale will benefit AEA's scholarship program. During the seven years the program has been in existence, high school seniors from Chowan, Perquimans, Gates and Pasquotank counties have received assistance during their first year of college.

All plants are propagated on site by master gardeners without use of pesticides and are suitable for local soils and climate. Visitors can see mature specimens growing in the extensive gardens, including many varieties of hydrangeas.

Master Gardeners will be available to answer gardening questions. The open house and plant sale will be held at Sunset Circle, Holiday Island, Hertford. Call 426-9563 for directions and information.

News and advertising deadlines for THE PERQUIMANS WEEKLY are Friday at 5 p.m.
