CELEBRATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. William Craig Trueblood

Trueblood, Cuthrell wed

Renia Anne Cuthrell and William Craig Trueblood, both of Hertford, were married on Aug. 20 at 2 p.m. at Bagley Swamp Wesleyan Church with the Rev. James Spough officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Glennett Spruill of Hertford and Pat Cuthrell of Elizabeth City and the step-daughter of Wesley Spruill. She is the granddaughter of the late C.D. and Renia Lamb and the great-granddaughter of Delia Meads. Her step-grandmother is Ruby Mince.

The groom is the son of Tina and Tom Trueblood of Hertford and the grandson of the late George and Geneva Trueblood.

Presented in marriage by her father, the bride chose a pearl satin gown designed by Mori Lee. The strapless gown was two-piece and a-line shaped. The sweetheart neckline of the bodice was trimmed in satin and featured embroidered lace embellished with iridescent crystals and beadwork. The back of the bodice was accented by a lace-up, corset-style closure. The skirt was satin and flowed into an elaborate lace train featuring the same embroidered lace and beadwork as the bodice. Her veil was pearl with a satin ribbon edge. She carried a bouquet of mixed flowers including white and yellow daisies finished with sheer white ribbon.

The matron of honor was Kim S. Harris of Elizabeth City, cousin of the bride. She wore a periwinkle dress featuring sequins and spaghetti straps.

Jennifer Trueblood of Hertford, sister of the groom, was the bridesmaid. She wore a mint green dress featuring sequins and spaghetti straps.

The groom's father was best man.

Groomsmen were Jimmy Bunch, uncle of the groom, and Jeffery Swaner, cousin of the groom.

Flower girls was Haley Stevenson of Elizabeth City, cousin of the bride. She wore a sleeveless white dress accented with pearls.

Mistresses of ceremonies were Evelyn Bunch, aunt of the groom, and Hope Baccus, aunt of the bride.

Wedding music was provided by Evangeline Stevenson, organist, and Brian Williamson, soloist.

Tyler Spruill of Hertford, brother of the bride, was guest register attendant.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church fellowship hall.

The couple honeymooned in Norfolk, Va.

The bride is a graduate of Perquimans County High School and is employed at First Christian Church, Elizabeth City.

The groom is a graduate of Perquimans County High School and is employed at Morgan Farms in Hertford.

Jennifer Alise Moore, Charles Eduardo Layden

Moore, Layden to wed

Jennifer Alise Moore and Charles Eduardo Layden, both of Charlotte will be married on Oct. 22 at 5 p.m. at Whiteville Grove Baptist Church, Belvidere.

Ms. Moore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Moore of Davidson and Mrs. Patricia Moore of Orlando, Fla. She is a graduate of Northwest School of Arts and earned an associates degree in design from Pensacola (Fla.) Junior College.

Mr. Layden is the son of Douglas and Geri Layden of Belvidere and the grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Layden and Dr. and Mrs. Eduardo J. Schick, all of Belvidere. He is a graduate of Perquimans County High School and is employed at Sam's Club in Kannapolis.

Friends and relatives are invited to attend the ceremony.

Women's Club awards transition grants

The Albemarle Plantation Women's Club of Perquimans County recently awarded two $500 Women in Transition Grants.

Earning the grants were Jessica Carey of Hertford and Dianne Layden of Belvidere. Both will use the awards for higher education pursuits.

Carey is enrolled at UNC Asheville, where she is studying media and communications. Last May, she graduated magna cum laude with a double major from College of The Albemarle.

While attending COA, Carey supported herself working on the wait staff of local restaurants.

Layden will attend Western Carolina

University in Cullowhee where she will major in emergency management. She is a COA graduate and earned her associates degree summa cum laude.

Layden took early retirement from Albemarle Hospital and has an extensive background in both health and computers. Currently, she is an EMT volunteer and teaches CPR, first aid and AED courses for the Greater Albemarle Chapter of the Red Cross.

The Women in Transition Grants are awarded to assist women over 18 achieve and maintain economic self-sufficiency as they further their careers through education, training or support with a new business.
