

WINNING CHEFS

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Chef and Food Challenge winners during the Perquimans Business Expo recently included (from left) Christy Howard-252 Grill, first in food; Tonya Spellman with Mama Tee's, second in food; Ashley Baugham with Camp Cale, first in sweets and Rachel Daubert of Rachel's Cheesecakes, second in sweets. Attendees could vote as often as they liked (a penny a vote) and the proceeds ($195.35) were donated to the Jim "Catfish" Hunter ALS Foundation.

Wind movie set for Friday

From Staff Reports

There will be a showing of the documentary "Windfall" Friday at 7 p.m. in the Bethel Baptist Church Educational Building, 794 Burnt Mill Road. The event open to the public, plus officials from Chowan and Perquimans counties. It should be of interest to anyone who wants a science-based perspective on industrial wind energy developments.

WOMEN'S CARE DESIGNED

WITH YOU IN MIND

ONE GREAT TEAM

Who can put a price on a woman's health? She's at the heart of her family, bridging the gaps between generations, juggling conflicting demands. The go-to team for those who prefer a higher standard of care is Vidant Women's Care-Edenton.

With two practices — one on Broad Street and one on Earnhardt Drive — we're committed to giving you the time, compassion and individual focus you deserve. By getting to know you, we can best understand your concerns and develop the approach that's right for you.

As part of Vidant Health, we collaborate and, when necessary, draw on the full resources of Vidant Chowan Hospital and the region's only academic medical center. When it comes to keeping you fabulous through every stage of life, two practices are better than one.

Accepting new patients.
