Hurrah Players to perform 'School of Rock' on Oct. 27

From Staff Reports tin Parker Music Fund and the Chowan Arts Council.

The Hurrah Players will perform the musical "School of Rock" for the public at Perquimans County High School on Oct. 27 at 6:30 p.m.

"School of Rock" is a new musical based on the Paramount film written by Mike White, which starred Jack Black.

The musical follows Dewey Finn, a failed, wannabe rock star who decides to earn a few extra bucks by posing as a substitute teacher at a prestigious prep school. Completely disinterested in academic work, he decides to create his own curriculum, turning his class into a guitar-shredding, bass-slapping, rock band.

Tickets are $10. For more, e-mail blasser@pqschools.org. The event is sponsored by the Perquimans County Schools Foundation, the Elizabeth City-Pasquotank Education Foundation, the Mar-

Regional Hunger Walk Sunday

From Staff Reports

The Food Bank of the Albemarle will hold the 33rd annual Walk for Hunger Sunday starting at the Museum of the Albemarle in Elizabeth City. The Food Bank is encouraging community members to organize teams and raise money to fight hunger in our region. Teams can be registered online at www.afoodbank.org, or by requesting a team packet.

Participants will take a 4.1 mile walk through the surrounding neighborhoods and complete the walk at the Museum of the Albemarle. Participant registration begins at 12:30 p.m. on the day of the walk, and the walk officially begins at 2 p.m.

The monetary goal for 2016 is $45,000. For every dollar raised by the walkers and their sponsors, the Food Bank can provide approximately five pounds of food, or the equivalent of four meals, to our neighbors in need.

This year's walk will include several activities for all ages. Children's activities will include face painting, pumpkin painting, an obstacle course and games. Health-related educational booths will be set up in the Museum lobby and visitors are welcome to view the Museum's historical exhibits, and visit the gift shop. The walk will begin at Museum of the Albemarle, 501 South Water Street in Elizabeth City.

The 15th US Surgeon General, and the first African American woman to hold that post, Dr. M. Joycelyn Elders is the eldest of eight children. Now a Distinguished Professor of Public Health at the University of Arkansas School of Public Health and a Distinguished Professor at the Clinton School of Public Policy, she never saw a physician prior to her first year in college. At the age of fifteen, she received a scholarship from the United Methodist Church to attend Philander Smith College in Little Rock, AR. Upon graduation at age 18, she entered the U.S. Army as a first lieutenant where she received training as a physical therapist.

Dr. Elders attended the University of Arkansas Medical School (UAMS) on the G.I. Bill. After graduation in 1960, she was an intern at the University of Minnesota Hospital in Minneapolis and did a pediatric residency and an endocrinology fellowship at the University of Arkansas Medical Center in Little Rock. She ascended the academic ladder to full professorship after her fellowship and board certification in 1976. She also holds a Master of Science degree in biochemistry.

Dr. Elders joined the faculty at UAMS as a professor of pediatrics and received board certification as a pediatric endocrinologist in 1978. Based on her studies of growth in children and the treatment of hormone related illnesses, she has written many articles for medical research publications and continues as Professor Emerita at the University of Arkansas Medical School. She was appointed Director of the Arkansas Department of Health in 1987. While serving as director, she was elected president of the Association of State and Territorial Health Officers.

Nominated as Surgeon General of the US Public Health Service by President Clinton in July of 1993, she was sworn in on September 8. During the Senate hearings on her confirmation, Dr. Elders stated: "I want to change the way we think about health by putting prevention first. I want to be the voice and vision of the poor and powerless. I want to change concern about social problems that affect health into commitment. And I would like to make every child born in America a wanted child."

Dr. Elders has been active in civic affairs as a member of the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce, Northside YMCA and Youth Homes. She was listed in "100 Outstanding Women in Arkansas", "Personalities of the South" and "Distinguished Women in America". She has won awards such as the Arkansas Democrat's Woman of the Year, the National Governor's Association Distinguished Service Award, the American Medical Association's Dr. Nathan Davis Award, and the National Coalition of 100 Black Women's Candace Award for Health Science.
