FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1910.

THE AUTOMOBILE PANIC.

Dr. Kilgo made a great many strong points in his masterful address on Orphanage day, but none better than when he paid his respects to the extravagance of the age. The illustration he used was timely and telling. It is all right for a man to own an automobile who is able to own and operate one, but the trouble is that a large proportion of the people who glide through the streets and along the public roads are not able to own these expensive machines and cannot pay for them.

Clerks and wage earners have no business with automobiles and we have heard keen business men say that they would regard the purchase of one of these luxurious and expensive pleasure rigs as quite sufficient ground for the summary discharge of an employee.

Unless the tide turns the automobile panic is not far ahead. Any man of sense knows that when the craze becomes so strong that a man will mortgage his house to buy an automobile his financial, if not his moral collapse, is only a question of a short time.

It may be said that this matter is none of our business, but that is a mistake; it is our business, and it is the business of every citizen to cry out against any impending danger and contribute what he may to give pause to a tendency that spells ruin to society. The appalling statement that the debts contracted for automobiles in our North Carolina towns runs up into the hundreds of thousands, ought to induce those who have not been swept off their feet to stop and think.

Dr. Kilgo is doing a great public service by lifting up his voice against this reckless and ruinous extravagance; and every leader of public sentiment, in the pulpit, at the bar, in the newspaper offices and elsewhere, ought to cry aloud and spare not.

The present age seems to be against taking it afoot. It is unfashionable and old foggyish to walk; and not only so but the dog trot of the old family horse has gone out of style. We must make from twenty to forty miles an hour or we are not in the swim. It is insane folly and the brakes must be applied somehow or the speed of our automobiles will measure our gait to financial disaster.

The Statesville Landmark and Charlotte Chronicle have been saying some sensible things about long winded speeches at political conventions. It is a wonder that politicians have not learned that long speeches in hot weather are a nuisance and a bore. Thirty minutes is long enough to discuss any subject whatever, and the man who jams the wind for two hours ought to be put out of the house.

Everybody ought to read Bishop Gallimore's thrilling pen picture of Jefferson Davis that appeared in the North Carolina Review for last Sunday. Davis, strange to say, has been misunderstood and maligned by the very people for whose sins he suffered. Our children ought to know the real facts in the case, and these they can find in this strong and luminous paper.

SAVAGERY.

Reno, Nevada, has secured to itself a reputation that Spain would spurn; and thousands of fools left good money there who got exactly what they deserved. The papers tell us that even women were seen in the struggling mass anxious to look upon a pair of brutes mauling each other over the head.

As for the issue of the fight, we have small concern, except to say that the man Jeffries received about his due. Any white man who so far forgets all sense of decency as to engage in a hand-to-hand fight with a negro, ought to suffer, and the maudlin sympathy expressed for him by his shallow admirers is enough to turn the stomach of a cow.

There is a strange streak in human nature that harks back to the forest and the jungle. We all hear the call of the wild now and then. The exhibition of brute force still makes the blood run fast. Crowds stood about the bulletin boards everywhere, last Monday afternoon, eagerly watching for tidings from Reno. Millions held their breath as the wires told of the blows that rained on the trembling white man by the powerful and exultant nigger; and a sigh of sympathy was heaved as Jeffries was dragged out of the ring limp as a rag.

Are you not a little ashamed of yourself, friend, for standing with the gang in painful and almost breathless suspense? You ought to be. Your interest in this slugging match by two brutes was unworthy of you. Honorable and legitimate sport is all right in its place but this was neither honorable or legitimate.

So far as the writer is concerned he had no "rutners" in the contest. Jeffries ought to have been knocked into pulp for degrading his race, and if Johnson had killed him, and the courts had hanged Johnson the world would have suffered no loss.

There will be a Farmer's Institute held at Enterprise and Wallburg, July 25th and 26th. A Women's Institute will be held in connection and will not be less important and valuable than the institute for the men. These meetings are no longer an experiment. They have proved their usefulness and we hope they will be largely attended by our Davidson county farmers. A premium of $1.00 will be given for the best loaf of bread baked and exhibited by a girl or woman living on the farm. We will supplement this offer by giving a yearly subscription of the DAVIDSONIAN as a second premium for the best bread. It is no small accomplishment to know how to prepare wholesome bread. We hope that other Institutes will be held in the county. We would be glad if our farmers would come to Thomasville again. The Orphanage pavilion is an ideal place for such a meeting, and we are sure that our friends of the Orphanage would place their facilities at the command of the farmers.

Voters should do their own thinking. This is their duty, and effort to make them so feel is effort in the direction of purity in politics.—Greensboro Telegram.

The above is good doctrine and needs to be preached in every newspaper in the State. It is a shame for any community to allow one man to "deliver" the votes of free citizens to any candidate or for any cause. Whether votes be controlled by means of money, or through fear, or favor, it is discreditable. If voters would only do their own thinking and not allow a petty boss to think for them, our political conditions would be very different from what they are today.

Mr. Charles W. Tillett, of Charlotte, was elected President of the Bar association, and this is understood as a sort of spring board set up by his brethren from which he can leap into the ring against Locke Craig. There is this that can be said for Mr. Tillett: North Carolina does not contain a better man and few that are so able.

The Democratic Executive Committee at a full meeting Saturday, July 2nd, in Lexington accepted the resignation of Mr. Wade Phillips as Chairman, and elected Mr. C. M. Thompson to succeed him. This selection was very judicious. Mr. Thompson is a man of great zeal but it is tempered with discretion. He is furthermore a man who enjoys the confidence of all our people and his experience in public affairs will stand him in good stead as the manager of the campaign. We congratulate the party in calling so capable a leader into service.

People are not much interested in "party organs" now. Their day has passed. The story they tell is too stale. The one little song they sing is monotonous. They like the paper that tells the straight truth and if it hurts the party, let the party suffer. There are good men in both parties and a lot of grand rascals. It is pitiful to see an editor trying to transform a sinner into a saint; and the people are tired of that kind of drivel.

It is to be hoped that the selection of candidates to represent Davidson county in the Legislature will be of men who will stand for the moral manhood of the county. After all, this kind of a man always makes the strongest candidate. A man who stands four square to every wind that blows is the one the people want to support. We would rather go down in defeat with a man as our candidate than to win with a molly coddle.

We are glad of the reaction that seems to be setting in against the use of explosives in celebrating the 4th of July. We want to teach our children to honor the day when our country walked out from the bondage of Britain, but we have paid too high a price for our hilarity in the precious lives that have been lost, and the suffering the turbulence of the day has entailed.

It is a pleasure to know that a course of study for the Orphanage girls who wish to follow the honorable calling of trained nurses is to be offered at that institution. Dr. Julian the physician, stands in high favor with the board of trustees, and into his hands this important branch of education will be committed.

That was an article of uncommon interest contributed to the DAVIDSONIAN last week on Thomasville Twenty years ago. The old men whose names are given, and who did not cut much of a shine, laid the foundation upon which our present splendid structure rests. We must not forget what the old men did for us, boys.

Hon. W. C. Dowd one of the candidates for the House from Mecklenburg county, aspires to the speakership. But for a delayed train on the Southern Railway Mr. Dowd would have been speaker of the last House. He is a fine presiding officer and would fill the position with dignity and grace.

It was remarked last Sunday morning by one of the pastors of Thomasville that within the past two and a half years there have been at least ten distressing and unusual deaths in the town. Several of them were suicides and all of them were out of the ordinary.

Mr. Fleer, the chewing gum magnate, is making large investments in North Carolina real estate. He has acquired considerable in Winston-Salem as well as in Thomasville. He is an excellent citizen, and we wish we had a hundred like him.

Gov. Kitchin delivered a forcible address in Boston at the National Educational Association. Hon. J. Y. Joyner, one of the foremost educational leaders in the country, is president of this great body. We hope to secure an account of this meeting from Prof. Hauss who is in attendance.

It is the opinion of the Statesville Landmark, that Mr. Roosevelt will not accept the nomination for President for a third term, and on this matter, as well as a great many others, we pin our faith to Clark. He is a hard headed man with a lot of sense.

Chief Justice M. W. Fuller, who died last Monday morning, was appointed by President Cleveland in 1881. He was born in Maine in 1833, but moved to Chicago when a young man. He was a great lawyer and a just judge.

The Spoke and Handle factory of this town is feeling the effect of the automobile craze more sensibly than any of us. The public have got above riding in rigs with spokes in the wheels.

The railroads in their answers to the Corporation Commission make about the cleanest arguments we read from anybody; but it will not do for the Commission to be governed by this oily talk.

The Charlotte Chronicle hits it off nicely when it says that Col. Dortch and Mr. Foushee ought to call it off. It will soon be settled, and there is no use in the world in throwing bouquets before the time.

We would advise our friends in Fairmont to change the name of their town. Old Robeson had Uncle Sam to ratify its Fairmont some years ago and whatever Uncle Sam says, goes.

We would suggest to the young men and maidens that they call for Huylers since the old man has cancelled the mortgage he held on the beautiful Montreat property.

Cities having 75,000 and over will be reported first by the census officials. We shall not hear from Greensboro and Charlotte for a long, long time.

The bloomer baseball girls will draw a crowd all right.

The Governor of Nevada is a jackleg.
