

YOUR REPORTERS SAY . . .

BLEACHERY & VAT DYE

Reporting:

SARAH BOWLES
FRED TUTTEROW
WILLIE BROWN
RUBY ALEXANDER
JANICE EATON

We welcome Moulton William Steele to our department as a newcomer.

We understand that Mr. Mac is "Grandpa" again. So that accounts for that broad smile he's been wearing.

We wonder why Buck Berrier was hauling pinto beans on election day. Which party were you feeding, Buck?

News flash: Arthur Whitaker has traded his Chevrolet off for a truck and is now hauling garbage for J. N. Ledford Co.

Wonder why Myrtle likes to get off at supper time. Could it be the movies?

We wonder if Willie Forrest uses the broom at home as much as she does down here.

We are glad to have James Cartner back with us after being out sick the past few weeks.

We welcome Beatrice Shaver to our department.

Whom did we see at the show the other Saturday nite? Yes, George, we were surprised because you were out sick and couldn't work Saturday morning.

Why doesn't Lloyd bring his sweet potato patch with him?

We have a certain man who should be on the "Ladies Be Seated" program.

"Sarah, why don't you rest more often?" asked Nell.

Fred, why don't you stay out of that corner? We know you stay in it more than you did when in school.

We don't know who marks the smallest rolls for the Jigs on the first shift but we do know his initials—ALBERT ROGERS!

Carl Eaton spent his vacation recently down in the eastern part "deer" hunting.

Carl Potts is all smiles these days. It's a boy!

Arthur Whitaker has purchased himself a new pair of shoes. Why did you get them so long, Arthur? Did you think your feet would start growing in your old days?

Ralph Forrest has his new home about completed.

Clarence McDaniel spent a few days in Durham recently with his father who is in the hospital.

Pfc. Wayne Eaton spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eaton, recently.

CARDING

Reporting:

CLAUDIE BOGER
"SAM" BOGER

The ceiling must be off of horse meat according to what Doc Ridenhour says—horses have jumped from one hundred to two hundred and fifty dollars.

After four months Sam Myers says he has his house built except for two doors.

We are glad to welcome Kelly Waller back to the morning shift.

We are sorry that one of our assistant overseers, Tom Plummer, is leaving us. We wish him the best of luck in his new job.

Claudie Boger is laying bricks these days. If you don't believe it, just come up to the Episcopal Church and you will find out how good he is.

We are glad the election is over—maybe we will have more help for a while.

Charlie Barnhardt sends his best regards from overseas and says he hopes to be with us some time after the first of the year.

We see Sherrill Munday throwing a lot of bone away at lunch time; those aren't rabbit bones, are they, Sherrill?

The other day Roy Hepler looked sad—said he had lost his units and couldn't find them.

Baxter Boger says he is in the trucking business if anyone needs any hauling done.

We see James Tise has a pre-war truck, but we don't know which war.

Will Pierce paid two dollars for a 'possum, walked two miles, picked two pecks of persimmons, bought two gallons of milk and a dollars worth of hay to feed it. If anyone finds a 'possum with its ears clipped, return to Will and receive a nice reward.

Need any wood cut? We have three champion choppers on the second shift who claim to cut fifty cords in one morning.

Need some fresh meat? See Howard Swain—he will butcher your hogs if you have any to butcher.

CLOTH, NAPPING and SHIPPING

Reporting:

WILLIAM OWENS

We regret to have LeRoy Templeton and Howard Danner on the sick list, but we hope they will both soon be able to return to their jobs.

We are glad to note the progress of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nelson's new home at Ephesus.

We are glad Bessie is able to be back sewing.

Gilbert Tutterow is out sick. Here's hoping he will soon be back.

We understand now why we have good work from Hickory Street since a new set-up.

Bill Rice says he will be glad when cold weather gets here so he can have a new hambone. The one he's been using all summer has been ruined since Homer Hodgkin borrowed it to cook turnip greens.

SHOP

Reporting:

GRIMES PARKER
ELLEN TISE

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Mills spent a Sunday recently visiting relatives at Salisbury.

We are all glad to see Mr. J. J. Hellard back on the job after being out sick.

Recent visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Barnhardt were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shelar of Radford, Virginia.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mrs. Ransom Dudley and hope for her a speedy recovery.

We were sorry to hear of the death of Tom Vogler's grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Vogler.

Baxter Barnhardt has been busy setting out an orchard on his lots on the Mocksville highway. Anyone interested in buying a lot see Baxter or Grimes Parker.

The Shop should be commended for the large amount donated by them in the recent drive to raise funds for the Boy Scouts.

SUPERINTENENT'S OFFICE

Reporting:

ELIZABETH HARTLEY

Miss Viola Cartner spent one day recently shopping. We wonder why she is buying so many pretty clothes—could it be a certain ———?

Mr. Deweese has been seriously ill. We wonder what his trouble could be—the election?

We are very glad indeed to have Mr. A. D. Walters and Mr. George Gibson back on the job after being out sick for several days.

Miss "Chick" Hartley went shopping one day recently, during the time she suddenly contracted a very severe cough. She went to a nearby drug store, purchased a bottle of cough medicine, and after reading the directions carefully began taking two teaspoonfuls every two or three hours. Several days later her cough was much better. She picked up the bottle for another dose and re-read the directions, and to her surprise, she had been taking a double dose. Wonder if it really was cough medicine?

We wonder why Mr. Pegram has turned down three offers for trading automobiles!

MAIN OFFICE

Reporting:

IRENE H. YOUNG

Miss Jean Deweese spent a recent weekend in Brevard, the guest of Miss Dolly Davis.

Mr. J. L. James attended the Carolina-Navy football game in Baltimore and also the Duke-Georgia Tech game.

Recent visitors from Durham were Mr. C. R. Harris, Dr. F. T. deVyver, Miss Louise Horner, Mrs. Billie Southerland, Miss Kathryn Freeman, and Mr. Glenn Penland.

A recent note from Jim Wall tells us that Army life isn't TOO bad. Jim is still in San Antonio, Texas.

SPINNING ROOM

Reporting:

VIOLA GARWOOD
THELMA GREGORY
FLOYD BRINEGAR
REBECCA McDANIEL

We are glad to have Fannie Waller back with us after being out sick for several weeks.

We would like to welcome Mrs. Helen Munday to the first shift.

Guy Foster is getting pretty old—older than we thought. He finally admitted the other day to being sixty-three.

Mrs. Leona Myers has moved to her new home near the Junction. If anyone needs any farming information call on Leona.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Reece of Greensboro were recent weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stout.

Sammy Carter who is now employed with the Police Force of Charlotte spent the weekend recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lomas Carter.

Halloween Contest Winners

JANIE FREEMAN AND JACK RIDDLE

BETTY JEAN SPILLMAN AND MICHAEL DANIELS

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Miller. A baby girl was born to them on October 28, named Frances Ann.

Miss Elizabeth Hendrix went to Kannapolis on a recent week-end to be with her son, "Benny Dick," on his fifth birthday.

L. R. Head, Jr., son of Mrs. Mabel Head, left recently to join the Army Air Corps. We wish him luck.

No wonder our foreman, Mr. C. E. Pierce, was wearing a long face last Thursday. Two of his dogs were struck by a car on Wednesday and killed instantly.

Mr. and Mrs. Lomas Carter spent the past weekend visiting friends in Lynchburg, Va. They report a wonderful time.

The latest speed record from Cooleemee to Salisbury is thirteen minutes, just one stop to refill water. How long did it take you to put the water in, Lawrence?

SPOOLING, WARPING, SLASHING

Reporting:

CAROLYN WHITE
LILLIAN ALEXANDER

We are glad to hear that Fred Dunn is improving. Keep up the good fight, Fred. We all wish you a speedy recovery.

Carrie Cornatzer is back on the job again after being out sick.

The price of pork isn't worrying Avery Sink. He says he now has five pigs with the one his wife won at the carnival.

The spooler hands put Mary Tom Daniels under the spooler to celebrate her birthday.

The Warp Room was well (Continued on page 4)