CHURCH CALENDAR

NEW HOPE BAPTIST Gethsemane accompanied by the church choir. The Blue Ribbon Society holds its annual affair with a program that is open to the public. The society was pleased to have the founder of the society to take part in the program. Mrs. Thomas Key organized the society under the pastorate of Rev. C. H. Brown. She now makes her home in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

In her remarks she stated, "You should reach out, you are needed for service to know, to love, and to serve". Following the service the members looked forward to visiting with her while she was visiting in the city.

THURSDAY: 7:30 Senior Chior practice.
SUNDAY: 11:00 Worship Service. 7:30 Rev. Emmanuel Rucker of New Bethel Church will be the guest speaker at the evening services. He will be accompanied by his chior and congregation.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

New High Point Rescue Unit

The High Point Fire Department has recently placed in operation a fully equipped and manned rescue unit. This unit will answer all calls to fires in buildings along with other fire equipment. In addition to providing tools and equipment for fire fighting and forcible entry, it is also available for emergency calls involving vehicle accidents, drownings, boating accidents, and other types of emergencies that involve persons being trapped or pinned. They are equipped with a rescue truck, boat, and some of the various pieces of equipment, which include, first aid kits, resuscitator, lights and lighting equipment, wood and metal saws, winch-hoist, hydraulic jacks, ropes, stretchers, and aluminized heat-reflective rescue suits. The boat is equipped for water rescue and recovery. This rescue unit is not designed to be used for the transportation of injured persons. As in the past, emergency transportation is provided by the ambulance service. This rescue unit is another step by the Fire Department to provide better service to our citizens.

A coordinated Emergency Plan has been put into effect to insure an organized operation in the event of a boating accident or drowning at Oak Hollow Lake.

Park rangers, the High Point Fire Department, Rescue Squad, the County Ambulance Service, City Police, the Sheriff's Dept., Volunteer Rescue Squads, the County Wildlife Protector, the County Forest Service, and the Medical Examiner compose the coordinated effort that is in effect for the new lake.

These organizations have perfected a rescue plan for all city lakes to protect life and insure a coordinated effort of all agencies.

In an emergency, Park Rangers will activate the emergency rescue plan involving all departments. Rangers will then direct the rescue operations of all units. Emergency entrances to all parts of Oak Hollow Lake have been mapped out and are known to all units.

Citizens are requested to report all emergencies to the Park Rangers. Everyone is asked to cooperate in case of an emergency. It is hoped that the practice of safe boating habits and good judgement will prevent this plan from ever being used. However, this is the only known coordinated plan of cooperation between so many agencies to protect the lives of citizens at any park facilities.

For Senior Citizens

The Davison County Council on Aging has been assured federal and county funding for the hiring of a planner/coordinator for the Council on Aging. Applications are being taken for the position to be initiated July 1, 1973.

The coordinator for the aging will devote 100% of his time in taking an inventory of what is presently available in the way of community resources to serve the elderly of Davidson County. While taking an inventory, he will collect data to ascertain the actual and perceived needs of the older persons in Davidson County so that he may establish priorities for programs serving the elderly and finding sponsorship of the different programs for implementation. There will be organizations of common interest group among the elderly to provide, not only for socializing, but communication, citizen participation and education. The coordinator will inform the public of the activities of the Council on Aging and the programs for the elderly through mass media, public forums and special interest groups.

Minimum qualifications for the county coordinator for aging will include at least a B.A. or B.S. Degree from an accredited college in sociology, psychology, public health or related social services, or a degree in Recreation or some experience and proven ability in planning and development of programs or any equivalent combination of experience and training which provides the requisite knowledge, skills and abilities.

Applicants may contact Mrs. Ann Smith and the Department of Social Services, Lexington, at 704-249-9134 for a preliminary interview or Denise Caffrey, Regional coordinator for Aging, at the Piedmont Triad Council of Governments in Greensboro at 919-249-4950 for a preliminary interview.

Underprivileged Children

RALEIGH — Some 100 underprivileged youngsters from across the state, many who have never been out of their own county, will be in for the treat of their lives next week.

They will be attending a special camp at Fort Bragg, July 2-7, sponsored by the Division of Social Services of the Department of Human Resources in cooperation with the Domestic Action Program of the 18th Airborne Corps.

The children, 50 boys and 50 girls ages 11-14, are all clients of county social services departments. They will be coming from 56 counties, from the mountains to the coast with their local department of social services paying only $16 for each camper and providing transportation.
