At Greensboro Coliseum

GREENSBORO, N.C. To quote their many fans "ain't nothing like the real thing, baby, even when it comes to hysteria, and the Jackson 5 are definitely the No. 1 group in America." The fabulous quintet, Motown Record stars and idols of the teeny boppers will appear at the Greensboro Coliseum Tuesday, August 7, for an 8:00 p.m. performance.

The sensational teenage super group have sold over 25 million records; an incredible beginning of a fantastic career for five young men, children of Joe and Katherine Jackson, formerly of Gary, Indiana. One of their more recent single records, "Looking Through The Windows" offers even more solid evidence of their superstar status. The record hit the top ten spot on all national record survey charts in both the United States and Great Britain and has sold more than 1 1/2 million copies to date. Though one would hardly expect the five brothers to be identified with politics, it was a nationally prominent political figure, Mayor Richard Gordon Hatcher of Gary who brought the youngsters to the attention of Diana Ross, who was appearing in the midwestern city for a concert.

Miss Ross went, saw, heard and was genuinely astounded. So much so that she called her long-time boss and friend, Berry Gordy, and in a matter of weeks the Jackson 5 were not only under contract to Motown Records but were also appearing on such nationally televised specials as "Diana" and "Going Back to Indiana", their own special for ABC-TV. They are the first black group ever to have their own animated weekly show. The Jackson 5 Show on ABC-TV.

The Jackson 5 include Michael Joe Jackson, Marlon David Jackson, Jermaine LaJuane Jackson, Toriano Adaryll (Tito) Jackson, and Sigmond Esco (Jackie) Jackson. In addition, there is still another brother, ten-year-old Randy, who plays a mean set of bongos and has been touring with the group of late.

Digging It With Daddy-Oh

Hi Gang

It's been a beautiful week in the music field and the Disc Jockeys has had a field day with the new songs and has caused such a stir that the charts has been juggled around to no end. We'll get around to that a little later but I must tell you about a long time friend of mine whom I had a chance to visit with during a recent one nite stand at the Greensboro Coliseum. His name coincides with the beauty of music: Bobby Womack. Before we get overly excited about Bobby Womack let's run down the present top ten for you as you hear them on the radio.

1. I Believe In you, Johnny Taylor.
2. Baby I've Been Missing You — Independents.
3. Soul Makossa — Manu Dibango.
4. Loving On Borrow Time — William Bell.
5. Where Peaceful Waters Flow — Gladys Knight and the Pips.
6. So Very Hard To Go — Tower of Power.

From The Cougars Den

GREENSBORO — Carolina's much-rejuvenated Eastern Division Champion Cougars have added still another most distinctive honor to their impressive 1972-73 array with the Thursday night announcement of President and General Manager Carl Scheer as the "American Basketball Association Executive of the Year" through a recent vote conducted by THE SPORTING NEWS.

Scheer was presented with a Bulova Accutron Mark II watch by THE GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS-RECORD Executive Sports Editor, Smith Barrier, who also serves as a SPORTING NEWS correspondent. The presentation took place at the Coliseum's Cougar Den prior to the highlight premiere screening of the Cougars' film, "This Is Cougar Country."

The 36-year-old Scheer joins Cat Coach Larry Brown, who previously had been named the ABA Coach of the Year, and forward Billy Cunningham, whose spectacular season had earned him Player of the Year honors.

Carolina, under Scheer's guidance, established itself as one of the ABA's premier franchises in route to the regular season Eastern Crown: 57 wins, the most in the league; a first-place spot from opening night through the final evening of the campaign; and an amazing 40 per cent one-season rise in overall attendance, a feat unparalleled in professional basketball.

Cougar owner, Tedd Munchak, obviously delighted with Scheer's honor, finds him "extremely sensitive to the needs of professional basketball and the most innovative and creative executive in the game today."

ABA Commissioner Robert Carlsson, when informed of Scheer's selection, offered, "we're all quite proud of Carl on a league-wide basis. Carolina's successes in every phase speak for his tireless efforts."

Scheer joined the Cougars in June, 1970, after serving a short tenure as President of the NBA's expansionist Buffalo Braves. Prior to joining Buffalo, the Springfield, Massachusetts native spent two years in the National Basketball Association's New York headquarters as Administrative Assistant to Commissioner Walter Kennedy. His stint in New York was preceded directly by a lengthy law practice in Greensboro after receiving his law degree from Miami in 1960 and his AB from Middlebury College in 1958.

While in Carolina, Scheer has been an avid proponent of the ABA-NBA merger and most active in internal league affairs. 1971 saw Scheer and the Cougars put on a record-setting ABA All-Star Classic before over 14,000 Tar Heel fans. As a member of the Rules Committee, he recently helped bring about the ABA's most recent change—the no-foul out rule which will be used during the pre-season on an experimental basis.

THE SPORTING NEWS Award is the first of what is expected to be an annual poll of ABA executives to pick the league's most outstanding performance.
