Aug. 27-Sept. 2
 Aries "The Ram" (Mar. 21-Apr 20) You may well boast of some of your conquests they have not come easily and the moments of overwhelming pride are now well deserved. But it's beginning to be a little trying to some "not so fortunate" chums. 'Nuff said.

Taurus "The Bull" (Apr 21-May 21) Thinking small can keep you from success. Haven't you, psychologically, conditioned yourself to moving within a small circle of achievement? You will have to break that block if you are to move ahead.

Gemini "The Twins" (May 22-June 21) It is hard to figure out who is fooling whom; it's always a fairly simple process of deduction to figure out who is going to win out. In this game of love it has to be you, right, Gem?

Cancer "The Crab" (June 22-July 23) The most important question: with situations being what they are in your romantic life, why take chances on long silences? Make the first move, Luv. Remember you are dealing with a Scorpion...they usually win in a battle of wits.

Leo "The Lion" (July 24-Aug 23) You are caught up and fascinated by the things that have to be done. Usually you find the future exciting and the sky's the limit. But you must stop playing the games other people want you to play...if you are to gain anything.

Virgo "The Virgin" (Aug 24-Sept 23) Instead of wasting your time with nonsense and petty squabbles, try to give a little. Just because things don't turn out exactly as you expect is no reason to go into a blue funk. After the 26th everything will be settled.

Libra "The Balance" (Sept 24-Oct 23) All that discontentment that is boiling up could be from a lack of imagination. You are letting a lot of opportunities slip past you. Luv. Keep your eyes open as your biggest break will come close to the 3rd of the month.

Scorpio "The Scorpion" (Oct 24-Nov 22) Cool vibrations are being felt by a close friend. Don't be so quick in judging. Off with the old, on with the new is a bad policy where friends are concerned. You leave hurt feelings in your path. Sincere apologies are in order.

Sagittarius "The Archer" (Nov 23-Dec 21) You are staying too close to home. You're generally courteous, agreeable manner is getting a bit edgy. Do circulate more and get some new, fresh interests. Pay more attention to outside appearance and dress. Make yourself important to "you."

Capricorn "The Goat" (Dec 22-Jan 20) You are near the end of a job that has upset you for a long time. Now make plans for a better deal. You are also on the verge of making a large purchase, a car? A house? Cancerians are unlucky for you so stay clear of them, especially where money is concerned.

Aquarius "Water Bearer" (Jan 21-Feb. 19) You may have a nasty fight with your "love" but you'll be back together shortly. Don't take sides

Minority Boost

An affirmative action plan to increase minority employment in the Camden, New Jersey, area construction industry was imposed today by the U. S. Department of Labor.

The plan, announced by Secretary of Labor Peter J. Brennan, establishes annual goals for a four-year period ending June 30, 1977 to increase utilization of minority workers in 18 crafts by contractors on federally-involved construction projects in Camden, Salem, and Gloucester counties.

This is the 63rd area plan to be implemented. Fifty-seven of them have been voluntary "home town" plans approved by the Labor Department's Office of Federal Contract Compliance (OFCC). Five plans have previously been imposed by OFCC, in the Philadelphia: Washington, D. C.; Atlanta; St. Louis, and San Francisco areas.

Under the plans contractors and sub-contractors holding contracts of more than $10,000 on a Federally-involved construction project valued in excess of $500,000 must

At a summer camp near Southern Pines, a smiling, enthusiastic camper prepares to go for her second horseback ride. Although many North Carolina children have similar enjoyable camp experiences, this camper is unusual. Instead of exchanging her two legs for the horse's four during the short trail ride, she is temporarily trading her wheelchair for a different perspective atop Gypsy, a gentle palomino at Camp Easter-in-the-Pines.

For here, in this beautiful natural setting of pine trees, rolling hills and spring-fed lake, handicapped children and adults are encouraged to do the unexpected, surprising themselves as well as their families.

The camp, sponsored by the N. C. Easter Seal Society and begun in 1964, is so popular that a similar new facility, Camp Sertoma, is planned near Hanging Rock State Park. Attendance this year at Camp Easter was 340 campers throughout the five, two-week sessions, each being for a specific age group ranging from 6 to 65.

Bill Kissam, director of the camp, stated that last year 35 different conditions were served by the camp. A similar number of disabilities are represented this year, with cerebral palsy being the most prevalent. The trend has been to include more visually and hearing impaired campers. One of only three such camps in the nation that do not segregate disabilities, Camp Easter stresses individualized concern in program planning and living accommodations.

For example, the pool has an entry ramp for wheelchairs, a large shallow area and submerged seats along the sides. An adjustable hospital bed is located in each cabin. Equipment in the shower stalls encourages self-help.

Discuss future prospects with him so he can figure out temporary alternatives which will avoid loss, inconvenience and undue hardship to you both.

There are laws to protect you and non-profit corporations such as Consumer Credit Counseling to assist you. So call High Point Consumer Credit Counseling, Inc. at 885-0041/885-0042 if you need assistance.

The individual camper has some input into program decisions through a camp council. With the variety of activities offered, such as boating, fishing, puppetry, nature study and arts and crafts, a variety of interests can be met.

The camp staff, coming from four nearby states, receive training at the camp consisting of one-week orientation including a trip to the Lenox Baker Cerebral Palsy Hospital in Durham and coaching on what to expect from the campers. These hardworking college students, many of whom come back summer after summer, also participate in role playing and sensitivity training.

At the last session of the year ending Aug. 17, one counselor is a particular favorite, perhaps due to her English accent. She is Mary Dornhorst from London, a special education student traveling all over the world, paying her own way to work with retarded children. One year she worked in Israel. She learned of Camp Easter from Robert L. Denny, executive director of the Council on Developmental Disabilities.

The Council provides the camp with several camp counselors at no cost to the camp through the PACE program, a summer work program for college students. The

Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. My garage was damaged during a windstorm. I spent $20 taking photographs of the damage in order to determine the amount of my casualty loss. Can I deduct the $20?

A. Yes. If you itemize deductions the cost of photographs, including the purchase of film and developing charges, for the purpose of establishing or computing your casualty loss deduction are deductible as a miscellaneous deduction. Do not include the $20 as part of your casualty loss.

Q. I was just promoted and, as a result, I'm getting a substantial pay increase. I want to make estimated tax payments to avoid one big tax bill next year, but I've already missed the April and June deadlines for paying the first two installments of 1973 estimated income tax. What can I do?

A. You can still file a declaration of estimated income tax—Form 1040-ES—, but you must do so by September 17, 1973. Your estimated tax should be paid in equal installments on September 17, 1973, and January 15, 1974. If you file your return and pay the balance due by January 31, 1974, you need not make your final estimated tax payment. The same rules apply to filing amended declarations of estimated tax.

Forms 1040-ES and instructions are available at any IRS office.

Q. Who can represent a taxpayer at an IRS audit?

A. Generally, attorneys, certified public accountants, and individuals enrolled to practice before the Internal Revenue Service may represent a taxpayer at any stage of the IRS examination-appeals process. These three stages are the audit examination, district conference and appellate hearing. The person who prepared your return (and signed it as the preparer), if he is not otherwise eligible to practice before the IRS, may represent you only at the audit examination level. In addition, this representation may encompass only matters concerning the tax liability for the year covered by the return he prepared.

Q. Is it true that a student can be exempt from income tax withholding?

A. Yes. Students and other individuals are exempt from withholding if they did not owe tax last year, expect to owe none in 1973 and have filed a Withholding Exemption Certificate (Form W-4E) with their employers.

However, if tax has already been withheld this year, the taxpayer must file a return next year to have it refunded.

Human Resources

RALEIGH — A major reorganization of the field operations of the State Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Services was announced in Raleigh today by Division Director Claude A. Myer.

The reorganization eliminates one level of management and combines two other levels. As a result, a total of 35 positions have either been moved into direct client services from administrative or supervisory roles, or eliminated.

The reorganization establishes four regional supervisors for rehabilitation services as the top administrators of these services in the newly established Department of Human Resources regions.

Myer announced that the new regional supervisors are John Yoder of Asheville, Western region; C. P. Truitt of Winston-Salem, North Central Region; T. A. Gaines of Raleigh, South Central Region; and Forrest Teague of Goldsboro, Eastern Region.

"Only two other positions other than myself, in the state office, will have

Executive Director
 High Point Consumer Credit Counseling

You have budgeted carefully and taken on only those credit obligations which seemed safe with your regular income. Suddenly there is a major illness in your family, a medical expense makes it impossible for you to keep up to date.

Don't panic and assume that unpaid bills can be ignored. You have other things on your mind, and it is tempting - but unwise.

Don't hide by pulling down the shades and refusing to answer the phone, this will only delay the problem. Not only your present status, but your future credit record is at stake.

Don't fib by telling your creditors that the "check is in the mail", this only forces him to call back, and increases his cost.
