ASTROLOGY GUIDE

Aries "The Ram" (Mar 21-April 20) Making headlong forays into new ventures is a bit costly, right? Better to mull it over for a while or you will be forever in hot water. Why not combine your efforts with those of persons who can help master those tricky problems?

Taurus "The Bull" (Apr 21-May 21) Usually you are a very dependable homebody and stay locked to your hearth by a very short chain. But lately you seem to manage to get out to some very exciting things. I hope your luck holds out, but watch it, pal!

Gemini "The Twins" (May 22-June 21) Good vibrations now should help you to push ahead with your main interest. Good for any kind of creative work or for those of you who want to make changes. The week has a touch of sparkle and the unusual about it. Wedding bells will ring for someone near.

Cancer "The Crab" (June 22-July 23) A pleasing development this week may well be that you are able to dispose of a problem which has weighed heavily on you for some time. A surprising event will focus your attention on a member of the family. Be very calm, Lu.

Leo "The Lion" (July 24-Aug 23) General influences are good and an enterprise that was delayed earlier should make progress now. Don't be put off by minor setbacks. Expect a surprise or gift this week. Take a dim view of those promises being made by a so-called friend.

Virgo "The Virgin" (Aug 24-Sept 23) Most of your plans turn out to be failures in your eyes. Have more confidence in yourself. Don't try to finish a project in one day...give it more thought, and ask for some help to get over the rough spots. A Taurus is waiting to be of assistance.

Libra "The Balance" (Sept 24-Oct 23) Your week may begin with a slight problem but beneficial trends appear when matters can be settled in your favor. Love, marriage and courtships are well favored this week, but keep a wary eye on a Leo friend, especially in matters of the heart.

Scorpio "The Scorpion" (Oct 24-Nov 22) It certainly looks as if you are going to run into a very romantic situation, but don't count on anything permanent coming out of it. But you can't be a winner all the time, can you? A smattering of jealousy surrounds a Pisces pal...Watch it!

Sagittarius "The Archer" (Nov 23-Dec 21) This is a very lucky time for you and this should enable you to make headway, especially if you first check carefully on all those basic arrangements. You will meet someone soon who will take up all your time and thoughts.

Capricorn "The Goat" (Dec 22-Jan 20) The first of next week will start out well but gets a bit confusing towards Thursday...be cautious in making promises or signing papers. Try to give an associate a chance to explain, Cap. You could be in the wrong, couldn't you?

Aquarius "Water Bearer" (Jan 21-Feb 19) You are considered to be the most efficient worker in the Zodiac and that means that you have an abundance of talents...now is the time to use them. Plan and organize so that all those jobs that are in the way can be completed to your satisfaction.

Pisces "The Fishes" (Feb 20-Mar 20) This looks like being a promising time for love affairs and new friendships generally. You should be able to widen your circle of friends, make and female, but be a bit choosy where red-haired people are concerned and especially those born under the sign Taurus.

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are a self-reliant, sympathetic, kind and gentle individual. You are inclined to be scholarly and never cease in search for knowledge. Your greatest gift lies in your ability to impart this knowledge to others. Of course, this makes you an ideal teacher and your life work is usually along the lines of education. On the minus side you are subject to streaks of jealousy and envy, which tends to keep you in "hot water" with close associates. You are practical and methodical to a point where you are sometimes considered a bit of a "Stick in the mud." Fields in which you could especially succeed: Teaching, journalism, science, statemanship or literature.

Dear Lauren: What is the number and birthstone associated with Leo? I am a LEO born July 29, 1951.

K.J.H. Salt Lake

LEOS have two numbers -- 1 and 4. Both give tenacity, honesty, make you loyal, creative, and a good organizer, and 1 is the most powerful of all numbers; it stands for strength, boldness--a leader's number. Your birthstone is the Sardonyx.

 Credit Counseling

The National Foundation for Consumer Credit has for a number of years collected information on families that have serious credit difficulties. The Foundation has established from its records, guidelines for families to use in determining if they are highly vulnerable to credit difficulties. A family may have severe difficulty in meeting a financial emergency if it has less than $200 in liquid assets, or installment debt which requires more than twelve months to repay, or more than 20 percent of take-home pay committed to installment debt repayment, and occasionally skips installment debt payments to leave enough money to live on, or takes out new loans to pay off the old ones. These are general guidelines and should be used as such because every family situation is different and has to be judged individually. The one basic rule that must be kept in mind at all times is that after monthly living expenses are subtracted from monthly take home pay the remainder is what can go towards credit obligations.

She's Jill Of All Trades

First Black Femme 'Sailor Of Month'

NAVY AIRMAN DIANE K. TAYLOR

NAVAL AIR STATION OCEANA, Virginia Beach—Airman (AN) Diane K. Taylor, from the Public Affairs Office, has been selected as NAS Oceana's Sailor of the Month for October, 1973.

The variety of PAO duties performed by Airman Taylor, a Jill of all trades, make her an invaluable asset to the command and the Navy.

AN TAYLOR is Oceana's first black female sailor to win the SOM award. She graduated from West Division High School in Milwaukee and attended the University of Wisconsin in Madison, where she majored in elementary education for emotionally disturbed students. She plans to follow through on her major, get a degree and ultimately teach in an elementary school.

So, after two years of college, why did she join the Navy? Miss Taylor explained that her mother would no longer support her, her boyfriend said she was too young to get married and she was also too young to collect unemployment.

PLUS, SHE has always liked the Navy and wanted to travel and meet people. Now that she has tried the Navy, she says that she may reenlist when this tour of duty is over.

As Sailor of the Month, Miss Taylor receives a framed letter of commendation, a 72-hour liberty, a steak dinner for two at her club, an engraved watch from the GEX membership store and a weekend at the Twin Bridges Marriott Hotel in Washington, D.C.

1040 U.S. Individual Income Tax Return for the year ending January 1-December 31, 1973, or other taxable year. U.S. Treasury Department—Internal Revenue Service. Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

How much of the tips do I have to report to my boss for purposes of income and social security tax withholdings?

A. Only those tips you receive on your own behalf are counted. Thus, where employees split tips, each employee reports only his share to his employer when his monthly tip income is $20 or more.

Q. I earned over $2,500 from my summer job before I went back to school. Will this cause my parents to lose my dependency exemption?

A. No. If you are a full-time student for any part of five months of the year or under 19 at the end of the year, your parents can claim you as a dependent regardless of how much money you make. Of course, they must meet all the other dependency tests, including the furnishing of more than one-half of your total support.

Q. I've been awarded a scholarship to graduate school. I haven't decided yet whether I want to stay in school to get a degree or just to take some courses I'm interested in. Will it make any difference from a tax standpoint whether or not I'm a degree candidate?

A. Yes. If you are a degree candidate, there is no limitation on the amount of scholarship or fellowship grant that may be excluded from your income. On the other hand, if you are not a degree candidate, the amount you receive as a scholarship or fellowship, including the value of services and accommodations provided to you, may be excluded from your income only up to $300 times the number of months for which you receive amounts under the grant during the tax year. There is a 36 month limit under the exclusion for non-degree students.

Q. Do you have a booklet that explains what a taxpayer's rights are in case he's ever audited by the Internal Revenue Service?

A. Yes. Write your nearest IRS office for a free copy of IRS Publication 556, "Audit of Returns, Appeal Rights and Claims for Refund."

Q. I work as a waitress in a restaurant. Any tips I get I have to split with the busboy.
