A&T Beats FSU

In the Greensboro Coliseum Tuesday night, the A&T Aggies edged the Fayetteville State Broncos by one point, winning 66-65.

The Aggies did not come alive until their sharp shooting All-American candidate James Outlaw, the nation's fourth leading scorer, found the range and began scoring. Until that point A&T had trailed by as many as 16 points in the first half.

The turning point came when Broncos' coach, was charged with a technical foul. It was as though from then on, A&T began playing like they came to win. At half time the score was Broncos 53, A&T 42.

When the second half opened, the tempo was slowed by the Broncos but the Aggies and Outlaw chipped away at the Bronco lead. Fayetteville State failed to move in to get the good shot, while the Aggies continued closing the gap. Then Outlaw got hot, and of course so did the Aggies.

When the game ended, Outlaw had a game high of 22 points and the Aggies, the victors by a score of 66-65. The victory pushed A&T's record to 7-2.
