The Good Neighbor Club held their Birthday Banquet recently at the Paddison Memorial Library. Mr. Palmer Friende, the Asst. Superintendent of Winston-Salem, Forsyth School System, was master of ceremony. Mayor Roger Swisher gave words of welcome. Speaker for the event was Rev. Cornell Osborne, pastor of Della-brook Presbyterian Church of Winston-Salem.

Rev. Osborne was introduced by Mr. Friende. Rev. Osborne spoke with reference to the club's motto "Together for others." He said, "In this life there are many people who need somebody to just listen to their problems." He saw the club as an organization reaching out to others and letting them know they are concerned. We must be attentive enough to hear their cry and answer."

Rev. Osborne installed the new officers for 1974. The Good Neighbor Club thanks everyone for making their Banquet a success.

The Missionary Circle held their fifth Sunday service March 31, with the Pastor Rev. S.L. Fogle as speaker.

Sick and shut-in Mr. Thomas Mumford underwent an operation at Forsyth Hospital, recently.

Mr. Frank Dick is a patient at High Point Memorial Hospital. Mr. Odell Warren is a patient at Forsyth Memorial Hospital in Winston-Salem. Mrs. Mozelle Warren was in an accident recently. She was treated and released at High Point Memorial Hospital. Also in the accident was Mr. Ernest Smith and son, Rodney. We wish for the sick and shut-ins everywhere a very speedy recovery.

Mr. Rufus Warren visited with Rev. and Mrs. G.L. Warren in Mt. Airy

Kathy Birkhead Zoland Happenings

Five Black students, Juniors and Seniors of Asheboro High School recently visited the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill for its Tar Heel Day.

The students who attended this day are Ritchie Bennett, Vanessa Payne, Gwen Allmond, Larvie Bennett and Diane Everette.

Tar Heel Day is provided for students from all over the state and out of state, to visit UNC. Students are given a tour of the school and information concerning the school and its activities.

Getting It Together!

by Sheella King
Stokesdale

I hope everyone is getting ready for Easter. The children are ready for the Easter Bunny to come, so parents get ready so the Easter Bunny can come. There are many people who don't know the real meaning of Easter, do you. Easter is the day when Jesus arose from the dead, after the Crucifixion. This Easter, go toward Easter with the right meaning. Read the Bible and get to understand it more.

In the meantime, look up the meaning of Easter.
