Reid Leads FSU Golfers

FAYETTEVILLE--Vincent Reid, a cool and hard-hitting young golfer from Greensboro, North Carolina has led FSU to three straight early fall tournament wins for the '75-76 campaign.

The young golfer, last year's CIAA champion and a senior business administration major, has captured medalist honors in two straight tourneys.

Reid fired a three-over par 75 in the October FSU Invitational golf tourney at the local Gates Four Golf Club to capture medalist honors and lead the Bronco golfers to a 26-stroke team win over visiting CIAA golf teams St. Augustine's College, Virginia Union, and Virginia State College.

Reid dropped three birdies and finished with a card of 38-37. Three other Bronco golfers shot in the 70's and they were Andre Springs, 77; Dennis Williams and Wally Harris, both tied with 78's.

Broncos Randy Combs and Willie Manning each shot 83.

FSU had a team total of 312; St. Augustine's 338; Virginia Union, 344; and Virginia State, 349.

Also, the Broncos traveled to Richmond, Virginia to participate in the Virginia Union Invitational and captured first place.

The FSU club won the top four individual spots and swept a 23-stroke team victory at the tourney.
