Rufus, starring Chaka Khan, and former Temptation, David Ruffin, combine this weekend to provide Soul Train fans 60 minutes of viewing pleasure.

member, drummer Andrew Fischer, guitarist Tony Maiden and bassist Bobby Watson, bring together an infectious blend of rhythms which has made them a headliner attraction.

Rufus, with two gold albums, Rags to Rufus and Rufusized, and two gold singles, "Tell Me Something Good" and "You've Got the Love," to their credit, apply their versatile talents to "Dance With Me," "Ooh, I Like Your Lovin'," "Have A Good Time," "Fool's Paradise" and "Sweet Thing."

David Ruffin, a firmly entrenched member of the Motown family, sings "Wild Honey" and "Walking Away From Love," two earthy, dynamic numbers which point in a new musical direction from his previous hits, "My Whole World Ended" and "Me 'N Rock 'N Roll Are Here to Stay."

Lead singer, Chaka Khan, the 21-year old singing sensation from Chicago, backed by keyboardist, Kevin Murphy, the group's founder and last remaining original

by WILLINE M. RUCKER
The year of '76 fashioned it's grand debut!! While the year of '75 took its final encore (if any). '76 was not promised... but still, we look toward it. Then, too, '75 was overwhelmingly good for some and close to disastrous for others. But, being true to tradition, we'll end the year of '75 singing "Auld Lang Syne" and bring in the New Year with celebration and merriment. We're apt to remember the tactics of 75. Some are hoping and praying that elections will take a turn for the better. The cost of living? Maybe it will increase or maybe it will decrease. Either way, we're anticipating the best. Or by chance, we might get a "President"?...not a proxy. Que Sera, Sera. What will be, will be!
