SADIE'S CORNER

(Tips To The Ladies)

After the news of a separation the young woman trying to start a new life was really surprised at the remark from some of her friends. She has had to listen to their opinions of how they felt. "she was unsuited for her husband, how did it last so long, he was not for you anyway, you are too good for him." Well I was wondering if people should stop to think that are talking about a person that this young woman has given a great deal of her life to, and undoubtedly loved very much. Some people may feel that they are helping by their remarks but are only doing harm. To a newly separated person, sometimes it is best to be quiet if you don't know what to say or how to express what you feel, is the right thing to say. Sometimes just a sincere smile and a warm hug can mean more than a thousand words.

The TWINETTS Do Their Thing

STATESVILLE—The Twinettes, a social group of 17 devoted members celebrated its First Anniversary Dance, Saturday, May 8 at the Elks Lodge.

The ladies dressed in their club colors, wore long white gowns with gold corsages, full length white gloves and gold shoes.

Their escorts (Statesville Twins), wore black bowties, with gold shirts, black bowties, black shoes and gold boutiniers.

The club holding true to its past reputation for Going All The Way, thrilled a capacity crowd with their decorations, music, food and hospitality.

The "Magnificents", a terrific band from Gastonia, furnished the music with Patterson, the MC, accepting his responsibility with great poise and that special dignity that he continuously displays.

The Twinettes was originally formed last year from a fan club in support of the Statesville Twins Baseball Team. However, they found that at the conclusion of the baseball season, they weren't READY TO DISBAND, AND THUS THEY DIDN'T.

Its very difficult to describe the events of the Twinettes without involving the Twins since their clubs are so closely entwined and interwoven.

Their club motto perhaps may be better describe them; LET OUR FAITH BE ASSURANCE OF THINGS HOPED FOR AND THE CONQUERER OF THINGS FORSEEN.
