Four A&T Sports Heroes Picked For Hall Of Fame

GREENSBORO-Dr. Bert C. Piggott, who coached North Carolina A&T to three football championships, Edward Martin basketball coach at Tennessee State, Julius Martin, former A&T tennis star and Thomas E. Conway, a former Aggie basketball and football star, have been selected for induction into the A&T Sports Hall of Fame.

Induction ceremonies for the four men will be held in the Royal Villa motel here Friday, Oct. 29, in connection with A&T's annual homecoming celebration. The banquet will be sponsored by the A&T national alumni association.

Piggott's A&T football won CIAA championships in 1958, 1959 and 1960. He coached football at A&T 11 years and was head track coach for 12 years.

A native of Illinois, Piggott played full back at the University of Illinois, and was a member of the Illinois 1946 championship team. He played in the Rose Bowl in 1947.

He also played pro ball with the Los Angeles Dons.

Ed Martin starred in baseball and basketball at A&T in the late 1940's. He was the starting pitcher on three Aggie championship baseball teams. He later played with the New York Clowns, in the Negro League, and later with a Cincinnati Reds farm team.

The Allentown, Pa. native is currently one of the nation's most successful coaches, having compiled a 348-139 mark in 19 years as a head basketball coach.

His Tennessee State teams won the NCAA South Regional college-division finals for four years and his Tigers were named National College Seasonal Champs by the Associated Press and United Press International.
