

They Star At A. and T. College

DUTCH CLARK

Captain Dutch Clark, Aggie guard, who plays his last game of intercollegiate football Saturday, when the A. and T. Aggies meet the Johnson C. Smith Bulls, of Charlotte, N. C. Clark has played four years of stellar football and is a danger sign to any invading eleven. He has been mentioned for all-C. I. A. A. honors.

Eagles Beat A. and T. Aggies; Score 9 To 6

Ground-Offensives of Both Teams Ineffective In Second Quarter

By VICTOR H. TYNES. — Durham, Nov. 29. — Homecoming alumni of North Carolina State had much to be thankful for after the Eagles upset a seven-year jinx by defeating the A. and T. Aggies to the tune of 9-6, in the thrill packed "Turkey day" engagement here at O'Kelly field.

Duckwilder, Eagle halfback, in a punting duel with Sam Bruce, in the first quarter, pushed the Aggies deep into their territory, and in the beginning of the second quarter, Dick Mack threw a pass from the Aggies 35-yard line to Robinson on the four, and the latter squirmed over for the first pay-off. Gaines' dropkick try was low.

Ground offensives by both teams in the rest of the second quarter were ineffective against the brilliant work of their linemen.

The determined Aggies came back in the third quarter with a sustained drive which netted them three successive first downs and carried them to the Eagles 9 1/2-yard stripe. This outburst of offensive effort bogged down on State's eight, when Harrington attempted to smash through the Eagles' strong forward wall.

Still intent on making an Aggie score, Bruce and Harrington worked the pill down field again to State's three-yard line. Coach Rollie Bernard sent Perkins, the Aggie "battering ram," in on the next play, which opened the fourth quarter, and the latter moved the stone wall back in two plays for the touchdown. Doub, dropkick specialist, failed to convert the extra point.

Until two minutes before the close of the last quarter, the game seemed destined to end with a tie; then a kick by Bruce, who had played a defensive game after the Aggie score, was blocked by Gaines and rebounded to the Aggies one. On the next play McFarland, in an attempt to score, fumbled but recovered for a six-yard loss. Unwilling to miff an opportunity to score, the Eagles pulled Gaines, dropkick artist, out of the line, and he collected the three winning points with a field goal.

Duckwilder, McFarland and Dick Mack set the pace for the Eagles, and Bruce, by virtue of his brilliant showing offensively as well as defensively, comes in for honors with Smith and Harrington as Aggie spark plugs.

The lineups:

A. and T.	Pos.	N. C. State
Gearing	Je.	Robinson
Lynn	lt.	Gaines
Woods	lg.	F. Brown
Monteiro	c.	G. Mack
Clark	rg.	Q. Wynn
Garvin	rt.	P. Davis
Smith	re.	R. Moore
Helme	qb.	Arbocke
Bruce	lh.	Duckwilder
Doub	rh.	Lafayette
Douglass	fb.	Hall

Statistics.

A. and T.	N. C. State
10 — First Downs	4
10 — Passes Attempted	9
3 — Passes Completed	3
4 — Passes Intercepted	3
19 — Yards Gained By Running	18
75 — Yards Gained By Passing	76
31 — Average Punting Yardage	34
1 — Fumbles Recovered	2
0 — Blocked Kicks	1

Score by periods:
 A. and T. 0 0 0 6
 N. C. State 0 6 0 3
 Substitutions: A. and T. — R. Lee, Bryant, Burney, Perkins, Jones, W. Lee, Harrington, Brown, Armour, Lawrence, Row, H.H. N. C. State — McFarland, R. Mack, Williams, Washington, Green, Booner, Hardy, Bell, Rich. Officials: F. A. Wiley.

Inter Class Hockey Begins At Bennett

The annual inter-class hockey games at Bennett College began last Saturday afternoon, with matches between the juniors and seniors, and between the freshmen and sophomores of the college. In both matches the older classes were victorious.

The hockey matches will continue throughout the remainder of this month and into the first week of December, with the senior-sophomore and junior-freshman games on November 22, and the senior-freshman and junior-sophomore games on December 6.

A. AND T. AGGIES BEGIN PRACTICE FOR GAME

The A. and T. Aggies began practice drills yesterday for the much talked of battle with the Johnson C. Smith Bulls, Saturday, November 23. Coach Rollie Bernard drilled the locals on running plays.

Monday, it was discovered that Joe Garvin, who received a neck injury in the State game, had a cracked vertebra and must wear a cast for two weeks. This unfortunate injury will keep Joe from playing in what would have been his last game of intercollegiate football. Julius Monteiro, center, was moved over to Garvin's position and Pryor superceded him.

William Hill, worked out at the quarterback position, and Huey Lawrence served at one of the tackle posts.

The Aggies will have a tough job in the Bulls, who have won four games this season. Keen rivalry exists between these two elevens and a gigantic struggle usually results when they meet. Last year the Bulls defeated the Bulldogs, and Saturday the latter will seek vengeance on the victors.

CANDLE FISH.

So oily are the eulachon, an excellent food fish of Alaska, that the Eskimos put a wick into them and use them for candles.

referee; M. G. Robinson, umpire; H. S. Blue, head linesman; A. G. Walker, field judge.

CHARLES LYNN

4. Charles Lynn, tackle, has made a startling improvement since he joined the Aggies last year, and this season, he has shouldered much of the responsibility of the locals.

ROY GEARING

3. One hears very little talk of Roy Gearing, Aggie end, but when the opposition starts jumping, Roy is really in there. If you don't believe it watch him when the Bulldogs battle the Bulls.

SAM BRUCE

5. Most sports fans are familiar with the name, Sam Bruce, but critics seem to have been wrong when they said that Sam was becoming stale. Sam proved he was still the old master when the Aggies played the Eagles at N. C. State, last week. Yes, Sam still has plenty on the ball.

A post service by couriers on horseback along the present Boston Post road route was the beginning of overnight mail service in this country.

There were three secretaries of state during the administration of President Woodrow Wilson. Bryan served until 1915, Lansing until 1920, and Colby until 1921.

Football
 LAST GAME OF SEASON
A. and T.
 vs.
J. C. Smith University
 GREENSBORO STADIUM
SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 29th
 Kickoff 2:00 p.m.
 Admission (tax included) $1.10
SOLDIERS 50c
 Music by the Famous A. and T. College Band

GRADY SMITH

Grady Smith, one of the hardest hitting tacklers in the game, when he is on the field, can be counted on to stop any drive.

DANCE

LIL GREEN
DANCE
 DR. H. C. ECCLES presents at GREENSBORO
Sedgefield Skating Rink
 GREENSBORO-HIGH POINT ROAD
MON., DEC. 1st 9 till?
 ADVANCE SALE OF TICKETS 90c
 Advance Sale of Tickets: Eccles & Wynn Drug & Moonlight Beer Gardens Royal Palm Cafe
 Reserved Space for White Spectators 75c
 AT THE DOOR 1.00