Commencement Begins At A. and T. Friday, May 29

Greensboro. — Beginning Friday, May 29, and continuing through Monday, June 1, A. and T. College will sponsor 10 important commencement events. The climax to the series of programs will be the delivery of the convocation address by Dr. Malcolm S. MacLean, president of Hampton Institute, Hampton, Va., and chairman of the President's committee on Fair Employment Practice, on Monday, June 1, at 7 p. m. in Harrison Auditorium.

Dr. J. L. S. Holloman, president of the Washington Baptist seminary, Washington, D. C., and a graduate of Virginia Union University, Richmond, Va., will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, May 31, at 11 a. m.

Mr. MacLean, who took his bachelor's degree at the University of Minnesota in 1929, has had a spectacular rise to fame as an educator. Once a newspaper publisher and night editor, he later became a teacher of the University of Wisconsin's extension students. He gained wide acclaim as an educator while serving as director of the University of Minnesota's General College, an experimental institution for educating misfit college students. Dr. MacLean's college became a model for similar schools. He was elected president of Hampton Institute two years ago and became the sixth president of the most heavily endowed Negro college.

Annual Dairy Show Draws Large Crowd

Greensboro. — The Annual Dairy Show and Co-Ed Milking Contest, sponsored by the Agricultural Association of A. and T. College, at the college farm on Thursday, May 7, drew a crowd of approximately 200 persons.

The purposes of the event were to give agricultural students an opportunity to put their training into practice, to inspire them to breed better animals, to help them exercise their skill in handling animals, and to acquaint the faculty, students and mond, and Andrew A. Best, vice president. Other members who were not present when the picture was taken are: Misses Lois Clay, Ada Halth, and Frankie Whitehead, Messrs. Warren Mitchell, Willie Mitchell, William Edwards, Arthur Bell, Harris Thompson, Charlie Gates, also Miss Willie Lee.

A. AND T. COLLEGIATE 4-H CLUB COMPLETES SUCCESSFUL YEAR

The Collegiate 4-H club, an organization composed of young men and young women, who have had previous experiences as 4-H Club members, has completed its first year's program successfully.

This club was organized during the fall quarter, with a total enrollment of 19 members, and held its meetings bi-monthly. It is under the supervision of Mr. R. E. Jones, specialist, Negro 4-H Club work in North Carolina.

The meetings held have been in connection with leadership training and other phases of 4-H Club work that might be beneficial to the progress of club work throughout the state. Those appearing on the program have been: Mr. J. W. Jeffries, Negro district agent, Mr. B. A. Hall, Negro county agent, Gullford, Mrs. R. T. Winchester, Negro home agent, Gullford county, and Mr. R. E. Jones. An interesting feature of each meeting has been the reports on the various counties represented in the club, relating to the county population, status of agriculture, club work, etc.

In the meeting on May 5, officers for the year 1942-1943 were elected. Those elected to office were: Jesse Francis, president, Andrew Best, vice president, Miss Carrie Payton, secretary, Miss Mary Armstrong, assistant secretary, Harris Thompson, treasurer, and Miss Ada Halth, reporter.

The club completed its year's program with a tour, covering observations of a nursery, dairy, club project and a werner roast at the Windsor Community Center. These activities were held on May 8.

public with the college dairy. Elton Jeffries won the first prize in the finals, a Bulova watch, which was given by Saslow's Jewelry Store, R. C. Causey, Wholesale Meats, (Greensboro), and W. A. Davis Milling company, High Point. The other prizes were won as follows: Slay T. Lloyd, second; Quentin Farmer, third; and Earl Simmons, fourth.

The following persons were winners in the showing contest: Elton Jeffries, John Wright, and Burlleigh Webb (class A—calves); Earl Simmons and Willard Pierce (class B—junior heifers); Seward Selby, As-

Party

The Future Outlook newspaper staff members gave a party Friday afternoon at 4:30 p. m., May 15th, at 505 East Market street. The party was given in honor of the Washington Street school fourth and fifth grade students, who are agents for the Future Outlook newspaper and who have sold a large number of them. Thirty or more students were present and also some of the teachers of Washington Street school were present.

Mr. C. C. Miller, of J. C. Price school was the speaker. He gave a very strong and striking talk on how to circulate the paper better in the city and community. A repast of cake and ice cream was served. Games were also played. Prizes were awarded to the students that sold the largest number of Future Outlook newspapers.

Pictures were made of the party and will appear in next week's issue. A party will be given once a month for the Future Outlook newspaper agents. We are inviting each student that would like to be an agent for the Future Outlook newspaper to call by the office located on the second floor 505 E. Market street, on each Friday afternoon.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. This is your gasoline ration card for the vehicle or boat described hereon. This card must last at least through June 30, 1942, in the rationed area. This card must be presented to your dealer for cancellation of one or more units each time you purchase gasoline.
2. This card can be used only for gasoline delivered into the fuel tank of the vehicle described hereon; or, if a boat, for gasoline to be used therein.
3. The value of the unit may be changed from time to time on announcement by the Office of Price Administration.
4. Your local rationing board alone can make adjustments or issue a different card.

That old gag about running out of gas won't be a stock joke much longer. Above is a sample gasoline ration card which Uncle Sam will soon dole out to motorists. Keeping your eye on the mileage gauge will be an absolute necessity. The cards are printed in white, blue and red; white ones have seven spaces to be punched as gas is bought; blue ones, eleven; red, fifteen units. (Central Press)
