ST MATTHEWS METHODIST CHURCH

Note of correction: Rev. T. C. Tarpley offered the morning prayer, Sunday, Jan 17, 1943 instead of Prof. J. A. Tarpley.

The devotion for the morning service, Sunday, Jan. 24, 1943 were conducted by the pastor Rev. J. E. Brower, Rev. T. C. Tarpley offered a very impressive prayer. The sermon was ably delivered by our own Rev. Samuel A. Donnell, who is now pastor of Grace Baptist Church, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Rev. Donnell took his text, Romans 1-16, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ; for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone that believeth, to the Jew first and also to the Greek." The many trials and tribulations that Paul had to undergo in order to preach the gospel were pictured in the light of our experiences today.

It was stressed that if we have faith, we, too can carry the gospel and not be ashamed.

Rev. Donnell is a brother to Mrs. Nanniel Mae Donnell Shoffner, and Mrs. O. Staplefoot Roberson. Many of his relatives attended the service.

A card of thanks sent by the Donnell family to the congregation was read.

SHILOH BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. J. T. Hairston, pastor, filled the pulpit at the morning service.

He took his text from St. John, 19 chapter, 17-18. Subject: The efficiency of atonement.

Points:

The Jews planned to crucify Jesus and classified him as a blasphemer. He was sent to Pilate for trial. Herod and Pilate were enemies, but when they went to kill Jesus, they became friends.

They charged Jesus with treason. Pilate asked Jesus what was truth and he answered, "I am the truth, the way and the light." After trying Jesus and questioning him, they asked what they should do with him. The Jews answered, saying, "Crucify him! Crucify him!"

Pilate denied Jesus as the king by saying that Caesar was his king.

Pilate found no reason to kill Jesus but the Jews said that there was a law. So Pilate told them to crucify him. There was suffering of the body and intense suffering of the soul. The Jews said, "If thou be the Son of God, come down."

All this did not change Him for He died to save us and as His last prayer said, "Father forgive them for they know not what they do."
