LARGE NUMBER SENTENCED IN FEDERAL COURT

(Continued From Page One, ving time, and did not know that the Durham board was to be contacted until some time after his release.

It was further reported that Milton made several vain attempts to contact the board and McNeill said that he believed the defendant to be telling the truth, whereupon the court reopened the case, placing Milton on temporary probation and instructing J. L. Osteen, chief probation officer, to investigate and report at the next term of court here.

Sentence of four years at Mill Point, imposed Tuesday on Joseph Hill, Negro, who allegedly violated selective service rulings, was suspended until the next term of court and the defendant was placed on temporary probation, it being held by the court that his mentality was insufficient for military service.

In the case of Curtis Dowdy, who had been sentenced Monday to 12 months at Petersburg for alleged violations of OPA gasoline rationing regulations, sentence was changed yesterday afternoon to six months in jail and a fine of $250.

Six Months Suspended

Sentence of six months in jail was suspended yesterday in the case of Julius Ceasar Brooks, Negro, who allegedly sold nontaxpaid liquor, and the defendant was placed on temporary probation.

Abner J. Thomas, reportedly a narcotics addict, was sentenced to 18 months in a federal hospital at Lexington, Ky. At least 36 morphine tablets had been found in his room at a Sanford boarding house.

Lillian Ella Kelly, charged with impersonating an officer and thus obtaining servicemen's railroad rates from New York to Durham, where she was arrested after considerable resistance was sentenced to 30 days in jail.

Co-defendant on charges of selling liqour on a large farm at Friendship were John W. Gray, his son, David Lee GrGay; Rayford Marsh, reportedly the son's employee; Luther Boyd. employee of Lindley Nurseries, who lives across the road from the farm, and Charles E. Lindsay. Negro, who reportedly worked for the elder Gray
