

One of the many spectacular breath-taking stunts in the Kochman Cavalcade of Thrills which will be presented at the Greensboro Victory Fair at Greensboro, on Sunday and Thursday afternoons, October 3 and 7, is the Tunnel of Fire. In this nerve-wracking feat, a motorcycle rider speeds through an ignited tunnel 30 feet long. The photo reveals Chet Gibson, among the daredevil stars in the show, as he sends his machine through the flames.

PERSONALS

Mrs. Ophelia Robinson of 108 Powell street left Tuesday night to spend a few days in New York city and other cities in the East. She will return in two weeks.

ETHEL'S BAKE SHOP
813 E. Market St.

Mr. Garfield Parks, of Washington, D. C., was the guest of the George E. Motley's of High street.

Mr. Roosevelt Henry of 522 High street has returned from Washington, D. C., after a pleasant stay in the capital city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Powell, 713 Law street, left the city Wednesday morning to spend 10 days in Philadelphia and New York city. While in New York they will attend the world series.

Mrs. Dora B. Watkins and Miss Royanne Cecil left the city Wednesday to visit friends in Newport News, Va., and Hampton, Va.

Miss Rachel Hargrove spent the week-end with her parents in Lexington.

Miss Queen Etta Graham was the guest of Miss Trolinger in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Trolinger.

Mr. J. H. Lane was the week-end guest of his wife, Mrs. Lane, in Greensboro.

Miss Flossie Mims was the honored guest of Miss Ernestine Buffalo in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Buffalo in Garysburg.

Miss Mary Green spent the week-end with her people in South Boston, Va.

The Community Gospel Singers of Terra Cotta will sing at the Congregational church, Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m., announced by H. H. King.

Mrs. Eloise Logan Penn has been appointed temporary band director of Dudley High band.

The Master Singers of High Point, rendered a program this afternoon at 3:00 p. m.

Storm Sash

AN ABSOLUTE FUEL SAVER

We Make and Install Complete

MAKE YOUR OLD HOME MODERN

REROOFING — REPAIRS CABINETS

MATERIALS AVAILABLE NOW

MENDENHALL LUMBER CO.

CONTRACTORS

Phone 2-0417

Greensboro, N. C.

Want Some Extra MONEY?

The Fall Term of School Has Started and Your boys and girls will soon be asking: "Mother, my teacher said 'We will have to pay shop and science laboratory fee'. The principal said 'We will have to pay book fee'." "Dad, I want a new fall suit. I don't want to go to school looking worse than anybody else."

Let us help you solve these family problems. We can do so by giving them a nice, dignified, intelligent job whereby they can assume some of these responsibilities themselves.

We Want 10 Boys and Girls To Sell The Future Outlook

We want three high school girls and boys to sell subscriptions. We have numbers of calls like this: "Send one of your sales boys by my house with five copies of THE FUTURE OUTLOOK. Send one of your subscription girls to collect for a year's subscription from me."

If you are interested in your boy or girl taking this job, call THE FUTURE OUTLOOK, 2-3425 or send them by Friday or Saturday evenings, to the following:

505 East Market Street, GREENSBORO, N. C., J. F. Johnson.

Richmond Hill, BURLINGTON, N. C., Mrs. J. T. Moore.

MEBANE, N. C., Mrs. Susie Compton. Prizes will be given on subscriptions

THE FUTURE OUTLOOK

Enriched Holsum BREAD