

—THE—
FUTURE OUTLOOK
 Greensboro Negro Newspaper
 DIAL 2-3425

PUBLISHED WEEKLY

5c Per Copy $150 Per Year

J. F. JOHNSON,
 Editor & Publisher
GERTRUDE BRIGGS,
 Social Editor

Business Office:
 505 East Market
 Address All Communications
 To THE FUTURE OUTLOOK
 505 East Market Street

Make All Checks Payable To THE FUTURE OUTLOOK

"Entered as second-class matter April 28, 1943, at the post office at Greensboro,
 North Carolina, under the Act of March 3, 1879."

SATURDAY, DEC. 18, 1943

The policy of The Future Outlook is to create a better understanding of inter-racial good-will and harmony.

Practice the teaching of Jesus Christ.

Give our readers the outstanding values offered by the merchants.

Help build a democratic government that will serve humanity.

To promote the morale of all Greensboro citizens and those individuals living in the United States who might perchance read this paper.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

GOD SPEAKS THROUGH HIS SON

God . . . hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in his Son.

Christ the Fulfillment.

The first verses of the Epistle to the Hebrews point out the progressive nature of the revelation of God. Men did not become aware all at once of the glory of the Divine Presence. It would have dazzled them like a sudden burst of light. Gradually, as men were able to understand and appreciate, God made himself known. Glimpses of the truth were given through the words of seers and prophets. "By divers portions and in divers manners" the wonder and the mystery of the Eternal was communicated to men.

The process was something like the gradual growth of electrical knowledge. The ancients dimly sensed the presence of a mysterious energy. They were awed by it but were utterly ignorant of its meaning. Slowly fragments of information about it were gathered from experience and experiment. It is a long journey from Benjamin Franklin and his kite to all our modern uses of electric power.

It is much the same with the growth of our ideas of God. Each age added something out of its experience. Amos was sure that God must be righteous and just. Hosea was equally certain that there must be love and kindness in his nature. Isaiah taught that God could be known through faith, and Jeremiah sensed that suffering and sacrifice played a part in the mystery of the divine purpose. Then came the climax in the person of Christ. For "God, having of old time spoken unto the fathers in the prophets

. . . hath at the end of these days spoken unto us in his Son."

The long process culminates in Jesus. Just as the capstone of an arch completes the structure, so in a true sense Jesus fulfills all history. Many fingers pointed forward toward his coming. Flashes of insight from the minds of outstanding leaders and thinkers were broken lights, candles burning in the darkness, to be merged at last in the clear, white light of his teaching and character. Paul says that the law was "our tutor to bring us unto Christ" (Galatians 3:24). Through its discipline and training men were prepared to accept the spiritual freedom that comes through Christ.

An education is a long and sometimes a tedious process. Youth frequently wearies of the discipline required in the study of subjects that seem remote from practical life. Yet all the while he is acquiring a background of culture and knowledge that will fit him for full participation in some useful activity. Much of the detail of his studies may be forgotten, but all have contributed to his fitness for life. In something of the same way an acceptance of the Christian point of view is the fulfillment of all the training and discipline of experience. The rules and regulations that form part of one's earlier development are forgotten when life is dominated by the spirit of Christ. He "is the end of the law unto righteousness to every one that believeth." Many of its elementary requirements are no longer necessary, because the Christ-illuminated life automatically and instinctively fulfills the demands of righteous and brotherly living.

As we draw near again to the holy season when the coming of our Lord is once more emphasized, let us find through him, in a new and greater sense, the fulfillment of life's highest hopes and dreams.

Patrician

Effortless elegance of line and casual richness of fabric are reflected in the jewel-tone crepe worn by singer Eleanor Steber. Created by the greatest exponent of simple chic, Nettie Rosenstein, the amethyst gown takes on a distinctive trim with a single piece of jewelry and is worn with a matching hat.

In front of the Richard D. Harrison Auditorium, A. and T. College, Greensboro, N. C., is the Group 17 graduating class of the Fourth Service Command Signal School. The men left the campus Friday immediately after the graduating exercises for their various home camps. In front of the group is the Commanding Officer, James B. Gibbs, who presented the certificates.

Ration Time
RECIPES

You needn't worry about the meat shortage if you utilize leftovers in Thrifty Meat Pinwheels. They're tops in eye and appetite appeal and they're easy to make with light, flaky margarine biscuit dough.

THRIFTY MEAT PINWHEELS

- 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
- 1 tablespoon margarine
- 2 cups ground cooked beef, ham, or pork
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard,
- 2 teaspoons pickle relish if desired
- 3 tablespoons water or gravy
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 2 cups sifted flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/4 cup margarine
- 2/3 cup milk (about)

Saute onion in margarine until lightly browned. Add to meat. Add water or gravy, mustard, and pickle relish, if desired. Mix well. Season to taste. Sift flour. Measure. Add baking powder and salt and sift into a bowl. Cut in margarine. Add milk all at once, stirring until flour is dampened. Turn out on lightly floured board; knead 30 seconds. Roll into rectangular shape 1/4 inch thick. Spread meat mixture on dough. Roll up like a jelly roll. Cut into about 10 slices and place cut-side up on greased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 25 minutes or until done. Serves about five.

Other favorite low-point recipes are found in a 32-page cookbook "Ration-Time Recipes." Free copy may be obtained from National Cotton Council, Box 18, Memphis (1) Tenn.

The WFA suggests that farmers supply their own lumber needs by increasing production from farm woodlands during the winter and by providing labor for forest industries.

Ration Reminders

RATION REMINDER.

Gasoline—In 17 eastern states A-8 coupons are good through February 8. In states outside the east coast area A-9 coupons are good through January 21.

Sugar—Stamp No. 20 in book four is good for five pounds through January 15.

Shoes—Stamp No. 18 in book one, good for one pair. Stamp No. 1 on the "airplane" sheet in book three, good for one pair.

Meats, fats—Brown stamps L, M, N and P good through January 1, 1944. Brown stamp Q becomes good December 19 and remains good through January 1, 1944.

Processed foods — Green stamps A, B and C in book four, good through December 20. Green stamps D, E and F in book four, good through January 20.

Fuel oil—Period 2 coupons are good through February 8 in all areas except the south where they are good through January 25. Period 3 coupons now valid in the middle west and south remain good through March 15 in the middle west and through February 22 in the south. Period 3 coupons become valid in the east January 4.

The number of farm machines on the rationed list has been reduced from 91 to 31, reports J. D. Blicke, extension agricultural engineer at State college.

Waist Without Weight

For Light Hearted Men

Why carry a lot of unnecessary bulk around with you to hamper your every move when you can keep just as warm in a coat of light weight! A coat needn't have extra poundage to give extra protection!

BUY WAR BONDS AND STAMPS
 YOUR CREDIT IS GOOD HERE!

H. & H. CLOTHING CO.
 Ladies & Gents Ready-to-Wear Clothing
 131 SOUTH DAVIE ST. - PHONE 2-2564 - GREENSBORO

Sharpe Clothing Co.

W. Front St. Burlington N. C.