CITY PLAYGROUNDS TO OPEN JUNE 9

(Continued From Page One) such as the entertainment of the BTC 10 band with a formal dance held at the center and a formal at BTC 10 Friday night has been added to the week's activities for the entertainment of service men making a total of two nights a week on the post and two nights a week at Windsor Center. The girls meet at Windsor Center Tuesday and Friday nights and go from there to the camp for dances. Wednesday and Saturday nights the dances are held at the center. The first and third Sundays in the month are open at the center for soldier open house. The young feel free to come in at that time and play games, lounge, write letters, listen to music and just be at home.

Now that the summer program is being planned the soldiers will have more of a variety of entertainment. The courts are prepared for tennis and the pool is open for swimming. Other plans will be made during the summer.

A few of the soldiers have volunteered to be life guards on their off duty hours when the pool opens.

Every two months a birthday party is given in honor of the V. S. O. Girls who have birthdays in those months and gifts are given them. The party is usually formal.

Pictures have been taken of both of the bands that play for the soldier dances, Max Westerland and his orchestra and the BTC 10 band.
