

INSTITUTE HELD IN PREPARATION FOR OPENING OF PLAYGROUNDS

Wednesday, June 14, the annual playground institute began at the Windsor Community Center under the direction of Miss Rose Lee Henderson, supervisor of city playgrounds.

Activities on the four playgrounds will begin Monday, June 19, under the supervision of seven workers. In charge of the J. C. Price playground will be Mrs. Willie Holt Collier and Miss Lynette Burton. Mrs. Collier is a graduate of the Howard university school of music, has attended A. and T. college and Bennett and is director of music in the Hamlet high school, Hamlet. Miss Burton is a student of A. and T. college.

At the Lutheran playground will be Miss Sarah Elizabeth Bright, who is an A. and T. graduate and a former teacher at Central high school, Goldsboro.

Mrs. Grace Donnell has again donated an area for playground near the Charles H. Moore school which will be supervised by Mrs. Edna Isley and Miss Ola Turner. Mrs. Isley holds a B. S. in home economics from North Carolina State college and Miss Turner is a graduate of Fayetteville college and a teacher in Taylorsville.

The play area at the Windsor Center will be supervised by Miss Jean Bright and Mrs. Lee Vonja Greer. Miss Bright has been director of social activities at the center during the past year, an A. and T. graduate, Miss Bright has done advanced study at Columbia, Atlanta and Howard universities. Mrs. Greer is a newcomer to Greensboro from Arkansas where she attended Arkansas State college and taught in the public school system.
