REASONABLE
 More persons, it is said, speak English than any other language. Or a reasonable facsimile thereof.—Indianapolis News.

"Our annual accident toll of 100,000 killed and 10,000,000 injured is an intolerable drain on our manpower and resources." — Harry S. Truman.

"The nation today needs men who think in terms of service to their country and not in terms of their country's debt to them." — Gen. Omar N. Bradley, head of Veterans Administration.

BENNETT COLLEGE PRESENTS SALZEDO CONCERT ENSEMBLE
 A concert of unusual novelty and interest will be given at Bennett College by the Salzedo Concert Ensemble on October 20, at 8 o'clock p. m. This ensemble, comprised of two harps, a flute, and a cello, is one of the unique combinations of the concert stage and presents solo instruments as well as diverse combinations.
 Entertaining and refreshing diversity is possible in the programs presented by the Salzedo Concert Ensemble. The harps are played by Carlos Salzedo, the foremost harpist in the country and by one of the most gifted harpists of the younger generation, fascinating Mimi Allen. Ruth Freeman, extraordinary young American flutist, and Mary Doolittle, fiery Canadian-American cellist, complete the ensemble. Its repertoire includes not only compositions for the full group but also for flutes and
