

Future Outlook

VOL. 18, NO. 47

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1959

PRICE 5 CENTS

Memorial Services Are Held At Bennett For Mrs. Annie M. Pfeiffer

Mrs. Annie Merner Pfeiffer, for whom memorial services were held at Bennett College Sunday, was described as a woman who although known for her gifts, gave more of herself to the service of God and of mankind.

Speaking of Mrs. Pfeiffer's great philanthropy, not only to Bennett but to other institutions in this country and abroad, Mrs. H. C. Black, of Johnson City, Tenn., secretary of the Bennett board of trustees, who knew her well, said:

"There is no monument more fitting to her memory than a campus like this where young women may prepare themselves to help in the making of a better world."

A woman of great wealth, Mrs. Pfeiffer was described as a person of sincerity, understanding and humor. Miss Marguerite Mays, 57 gave a tribute and a classmate, Miss Phyllis Henry, led the reading of a litany of gratitude. Expressing appreciation from the student body was Miss Blanche Tobukumetzger.

President Willa B. Player presided and the choir, under the direction of Mrs. Mary J. Crawford, with Clarence E. Whiteman at the organ, sang "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross," by R. Nathaniel Dett.

New Program of African Studies Begins At A. & T.

A native African and former instructor here in busily engaged in setting up a brand new study program at A&T College.

Dr. S. M. Broderick, assistant director of education for the school system in his native Sierra Leone, West Africa, has come to A&T to inaugurate an African Studies Project. He comes under a Fulbright Fellowship sponsored by the U.S. State Department.

Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs, president of the college, said the program, which aims to enrich the overall program of the college and to give students training in the culture of the African continent, will be broad in scope to include the fields of history, economics, sociology, political science and geography.

Dr. Broderick said the emergence of a new Africa, politically, socially, economically and intellectually, has aroused particular interest in America. He believes that the project will create further interest among young college students to visit and work in African nations and other underdeveloped countries of the world to aid in their further development.

The project is unique in that it marks the first time that an African national has been imported for the express assignment of installing such a program at an American college or university.

Such assignment is not new to Dr. Broderick. He spent a full year here in 1954 in research at

(Continued on Page 4)

Dedication Program Honoring Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Shuford To Be Held At Mount Tabor Church

Dedication program in honor of Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Shuford for their long years of service will be held at the Mt. Tabor Methodist Church with the pastor Rev. R. F. McCallum in charge. The program will be held at 8:00 p.m. Persons bringing greetings for the occasion will be Mrs. Cora Davis from Goshen Church; Mrs. Connie Mebane from Holmes Grove; Mrs. Willie Jones from Basses Chapel; Mrs. Pauline Guest from Ebenezer; Miss Barbara Mebane from Mt. Tabor; Mrs. Mary Marable from Browning Chapel; Mrs. Patricia Wiseman from Cecelia Phelps. Music will be furnished by the community choir under the direction of Mrs. Frances Enzlow.

This is the recognition of places and service of Rev. and Mrs. Shuford. They have served 56½ years in the North Carolina Church Conference pastoring the following churches. In Greensboro 1915, 1 year; 1916 Lenoir Circuit, 2 years; 1917 West Asheville 2 Years; 1918 Waynesville in West Asheville 1 year; 1919 Lawndale on Flat Rock 1 year; 1920 Newton on Cowover 4 years. He remodeled both churches with all debts paid. In 1924 he served Gastonia, N.C. 1 year; 1925 Marion, N.C. 3 years. completed the brick church, all debts paid in full. In 1928 he served as Bass Chapel and Jonesboro which is now known as Browning Chapel. He built a brick church clear of all debt. In 1935 South Greensboro Charge purchased a school building on a six acre land site for a new church. In 1954 he served Mt. Tabor Church 5 years. this is the record in the North Carolina Methodist Conference.

Since they have been married Mrs. Shuford taught in the public school system and every community he pastored for 35 years. Her last work was dietitian at Bennett College for 3 years making a total of 38 years. Since 1921 she has been a great backer to her husband in all of his church work. She has worked in all auxiliaries of the churches, which is closely related with her teaching.

All churches of the Greensboro District which he served are helping to sponsor this service. Because of the close relationship with the Ebenezer Baptist Church they are joining in this service.

Proceeds for the occasion will be a special contribution to the honorees.

Pamela Allen Winner In Baby Contest; Raises $77.70

The Eastern Stars of King David Lodge Chapter No. 7 held a Baby Contest Monday night, Sept. 28 at the Masonic Hall 902 Julian St. There were six babies in the contest. Little Pamela Charlene Allen was the winner. She received first prize of $12.50. She raised $77.70. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wendell Allen Jr. of Washington, D. C. and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wendell Allen Sr. of D. C. Formerly of Greensboro, N. C. This is little Pamela and her grandmother Mrs. Margaret Rhodes Allen.

UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND

Dr. Willa B. Player, president of Bennett College, following her attendance at a United Negro College Fund meeting in Atlanta on Monday, will go to Washington, D. C. for sessions of the American Council on Education, October 8-9.

Dr. W. T. Gibbs Receives Honorary Farmer Degree In Atlanta Meet

ATLANTA, GA. — The president of A&T College at Greensboro, N. C., was cited last week by the national organization of New Farmers of America.

Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs, president of the college since 1955, received the Honorary Superior Farmer Degree, the highest honor given by the organization, at its 25th annual convention being held here at the Atlanta Municipal Auditorium September 28 - October 2.

The college head was cited for outstanding leadership, cooperation and support given to those involved in agriculture over a long period of years. The award was presented at the opening session on Wednesday. Dr. Gibbs delivered a main address following the presentation.

Another member of the A&T College staff, J. W. Warren, Jr., district supervisor of Vocational Agriculture, spoke to the farm youth on Tuesday evening from the subject, "Out of the Past Into the Future With NFA."

Three students from A&T College were in attendance at the meet, including: Herman Burnett, Burlington, a candidate for national office; Leonard Pettey, Wilkesboro and Justice Carl Fulton, Winston - Salem, both awarded the Superior Farmer Degree.

W. T. Johnson, Sr., district supervisor of State Vocational Agriculture and who maintains headquarters at A&T College, is national executive treasurer of the organization.

Jasmine Chapter No. 7, OES, Raises $202.07 In Baby Contest

The Jasmine Chapter No. 7 O.E.S. Baby contest winners were; Mrs. Beatrice Allen Jeffers, first prize $77.70, Baby Allen. Mrs. Mary Jane Keck, 2nd prize $56.75, Baby Troxler. Mrs. Lizzie Walton, $29.77, Baby Walton, 3rd prize. Baby Lorg $9.00 Baby Lewis $28.85. The total amount raised was $202.07. The worthy matron Mrs. Florence Meadows wishes to thank the neighbors and friends, members for their cooperation in making it a wonderful success. Mrs. Mary Jane Keck.

BENNETT FRESHMAN ELECTED CHAIRMAN

Elected chairman of the freshman planning committee for the first semester is Miss Leslie Doty of Dallas, Texas.

Serving with her will be Misses Mercedes Davis, of New Orleans, La., vice-chairman; Clifford Claye, of Houston, Texas, secretary; Carolyn Walker, of New Haven, Conn., treasurer, and Barbara McDowell, of Greensboro, member-at-large.

BENNETT FOUNDERS DAY

Mrs. Grace Colburne Gates of Baltimore, Md., a member of the class of 1934, will represent the alumnae of Bennett College when the annual Founder's Day program is presented in Pfeiffer Chapel on Sunday, October 18, at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Colburne is employed by the city of Baltimore as a community activities advisor.

DR. ARMSTRONG, VESPER SPEAKER

Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong, pastor of Browning Chapel Methodist Church here, will speak at the Sunday vesper service at Bennett College on October 11.

USHERS' COUNCIL MEETS

The Greensboro Usher's Council will hold its monthly meeting Tuesday, October 6, at 8:00 p.m. at the New Coshen Methodist Church on Rt. 220. Host for the occasion will be Rev. Eugene Black all members are urged to be present. Andrew Gilreath, Vice Chairman.

A. & T. Aggies Face Maryland State In Homecoming Tilt

The A&T College Aggies begin the defense of their CIAA football championship in a homecoming tilt against Maryland State College here on October 17.

The game, set for the Greensboro Memorial Stadium beginning at 2:00 p.m. is the first home game for the Aggies. It is expected to draw one of the largest crowds ever to witness a football game in this city.

The tilt brings together two of the foremost contenders for this season's CIAA crown. The victor, in either case, will have crossed a big barrier in its quest for the conference title.

A full program of activity, including: a big homecoming parade, social affairs for visitors and alumni, topped by the annual Homecoming Ball on Saturday evening and an alumni worship hour on Sunday, has been arranged.

DR. PLAYER ANNOUNCED THAT BENNETT WILL TEST FOR SCHOLARSHIPS

President Willa B. Player announced this week that Bennett College will be one of the thirty colleges participating in the testing of 6,000 to 7,000 scholarship and admission candidates from more than 900 high schools distributed throughout the United States and the Virgin Islands.

Bennett will cooperate in administering the Cooperative Intercollegiate Examination between November 30 and December 12, which will be given in some 260 test centers across the nation during this period. The Cooperative Intercollegiate Examination Program is an educational service of the United Negro College Fund. The examination is open to qualified high school seniors and to a limited number of high school sophomores and juniors of exceptional ability and promise.

President Player has appointed Dr. Chauncey G. Winston, Chairman of the Social Science Division, to direct the test administration.