Baha'u'llah Observe 142nd Anniversary

The 142nd anniversary of the birth of Baha'u'llah, founder of the Baha'i Faith, was observed on Wednesday evening, Nov. 11 by the Baha'is in Greensboro and throughout the world, according to the National Spiritual Assembly of the Baha'is of the United States.

Born in 1817, in Teheran, of one of Persia's most illustrious and wealthy families, Baha'u'llah, a descendent of Abraham and Jesse, during 40 years of exile and imprisonment, expounded a gospel which interpreted the spiritual meaning of the ancient scriptures, renewed the reality of faith in God and established as the foundation of human society the principle of the oneness of mankind.

His advent, the Assembly states, fulfills the prophecies of the Old and New Testaments as well as those of the Qur'an regarding the coming of the Promised One in the end of time, on the Day of Judgment. His ami is not to destroy but to fulfill the Revelations of the past,

Ernest Brown Sentenced To 26-30 Years In Prison For Murder

Ernest David Brown was sentenced to 26 to 30 years in Central Prison Thursday after an all white jury found him guilty of the second degree murder of his girl friend.

Attorney for Ernest David, 19, said he would not enter an appeal to the State Supreme Court.

The Guilford Superior Court jury of four women and eight men deliberated an hour and a half before returning with their verdict of second degree murder.

They could have found the bricklayer's helper guilty of first degree murder, guilty of first degree murder with a recommendation for mercy, guilty of second degree murder or innocent.

First Degree Charge

Brown had been charged with first degree murder in the brutal beating and eventual death of Fannie Slade Baity on Oct. 4 at the apartment they shared at 113-B Nocho St.

Solicitor Horace R. Kornegay said Brown had capped a "history of vicious beating of females" with the Baity woman's death.

Two other women told Judge L. Richardson Preyer Thursday that beatings given them by Brown when he was drinking caused them to be hospitalized.

Elizabeth Brooks said he stomped her and kicked her so brutally about the lower part of her abdomen that she was hospitalized two weeks. Pauline Walls said he once beat her with a shoe, scarring her lip and eye, and again with a wine bottle, scarring her other eye.

Fatally Beaten

Brown beat the Baity woman with a metal fire shovel which broke during the beating. He denied jabbing her face and head with the broken handle, but he was unable to explain how the deep cuts and holes resulted from a beating with the flat side of the shovel.

His attorney argued to the court that Brown had no trouble until he was drinking and that he was not as morally responsible as a person with a better background and chance in life.

Judge Preyer said that anyone in his right mind knows it is wrong to take a fire shovel and beat someone to death.

"He may be a good fellow when he is sober, but he is a danger to society when he is drinking," Judge Preyer said.

The maximum penalty for second degree murder is 30 years. Second degree murder is unlawful killing with malice but without premeditation.

J. SAUNDERS REDDING SPEAKS AT BENNETT

In the current cold war between democracy and communism, democracy has the greater potential to survive, J. Saunders Redding, award-winning author and professor of creative literature at Hampton Institute declared in an address at Bennett College last week.

Mr. Redding, at present on leave on a Guggenheim fellowship, spoke on "Neutrality and Neutralism" at the Friday morning chapel assembly.

He defined neutrality as "a political posture or policy having juridical status" and defined neutralism as "an intellectual attitude." An equation of the two, he pointed out, is highly questionable, but added "yet it is an equation which westerners are prone to make."

"Neutrality," said Mr. Redding, "is a state of mind which permits the neutralist to avoid making moral choices. It is the
