

Future Outlook

VOL. 19, NO. 11

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, SATURDAY, JANUARY 23, 1960

PRICE 5 CENTS

Graves-Dodd Nuptials Solemnized In Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel

The Annie Merner Pfeiffer Chapel, Bennett College, was the setting for the candlelight marriage of Miss Janie M. Graves and Allen A. Dodd on Sunday, December 27, at 5:00 p.m.

Dr. Clinton C. Armstrong performed the ceremony. Nuptial music was presented by Miss Jacqueline Florance, organist, and Mrs. Barbara Raleigh, soloist.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard The groom is the son of Mr. Graves of Greensboro, N. C. Manual Dodd of Harrisburg, Pa.

Given in marriage by her uncle, James A. Graves, the bride wore a long chantilly lace gown designed with a scooped neckline, a fitted bodice complemented by a very bouffant skirt, and long sleeves ending in points over the hands.

Her fingertip illusion veil was attached to a halo of lace and tulle sprinkled with sequins and pearls. She carried white roses on a white prayer book.

Miss Claudette Graves, Woman's College sophomore and cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a slim white-embossed taffeta dress with a green net overskirt, matching headress and carried a white cascade of carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Ethel Graves, Yanceyville, Miss Vera Vincent, New York, Mrs.

Luvenia Chavis and Miss Peggy Neal of Greensboro. They wore dresses of green embossed taffeta with white net overskirts identical in style to that of the honor attendant's with matching headpieces and slippers. Their bouquets were composed of white carnations with green ribbon streamers.

The bride's niece, Debora Davis, was flower girl. She wore a white embroidered organza dress with a green cumberband. Mr. Chester Dodd, cousin of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Bill Mock, James Vincent, Norman Little, and Charles Chambers all of Greensboro.

The grandmother of the bride wore a beige dress with matching accessories and a carnation corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the residence of the bride. Hostesses were Misses Claudia Warren, Lillian Russell, and Claudine Graves. The newlyweds left for Harrisburg, Pa., immediately following the reception.

The new Mrs. Dodd is a graduate of Bennett College, Greensboro, N. C., and is presently working there as secretary in the Thomas F. Holgate Library. She will join her husband permanently in June. He is a former A&T student and is now employed as clerk typist for the United Council of Churches, Harrisburg, Pa.

Memorial Services For Dr. David D. Jones Held At Bennett College

Dr. David D. Jones, who headed Bennett College from 1926 until 1955, was described Sunday as "a man who had faith in God and who believed that man's relation to the Eternal is personal."

The occasion was the annual service of remembrance and the speaker was Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, head of the Washington Area of the Methodist Church, who was a close friend of the late educator and his family.

Referring to Dr. Jones as one of the "distinguished leaders of American education," Bishop

(Continued on Page 4)

Six Persons Escape Death In Fire Tragedy

Early Thursday morning, the Greensboro fire department en route to a fire at 2208 Pear St. by way of E. Market St. and Cottage Grove Avenue detected another fire on the corner of E. Market and Durham Streets. Six persons asleep in the house and unaware of the fire were saved by the careful observance of Deputy Chief Crumpler and other members of the fire department.

The residents of the house are Mrs. Annie Campbell, age 52; her sons, Javis, age 24, John, age 23, Fred, age 22 and Otis, age 17; one daughter, Miss Evelyn Campbell, age 20. These people are left homeless at this writing.

The fire was reported to have started in the kitchen of the house.

A&T CHOIR & DANCE GROUP SCORE IN "EVENING WITH SPIRITUALS"

The A&T College Choir and Modern Dance Group scored in their presentation of an "Evening With Spirituals" at the Harrison Auditorium last Sunday afternoon.

The dancers, directed by Mrs. Cynthia Shivers, interpreted two spirituals, "Couldn't Hear Nobody Pray" and "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen" as the choir rendered the choral background.

The choir considered outstanding in its rendition of "Elijah Rock" and "It's All Over Me" with Ruby Coston, soprano, of Warsaw and Richard Smith, baritone of Miami, Fla., appearing as leading soloists.

Mrs. A. J. Taylor, Girl Scout Executive, Dies; Rites Sunday

Mrs. A. J. Taylor, executive director of District 2, Guilford-Randolph Girl Scout Council, died at 4 p.m. Thursday, at Duke Hospital. She was 55.

The former Bettie Georgia Scott of Clover, Va., Mrs. Taylor graduated from Virginia State College at Petersburg and taught school at Clover and at Johnson County Training School at Smithfield.

Mrs. Taylor moved here in 1930 and for a number of years was a volunteer leader with Girl Scout troops in this area. She directed the first camp for girls at Camp Carlson as a volunteer

MRS. GERALDINE SAPP

GIRL SCOUT CHIEF — Mrs. Geraldine Sapp, Greensboro, N. C., was recently appointed acting director of the Randolph and Guilford Council of the Girl Scouts of America.

She is serving as replacement for Mrs. A. J. Taylor who died Thursday at Duke Hospital.

Mrs. Sapp completed 15 years of continuous volunteer service in Girl Scouting in 1959. She will supervise 54 troops and more than 200 adult volunteers.

MRS. A. J. TAYLOR and each year would take troops there.

Mrs. Taylor had been in declining health for several years and had been seriously ill since April of last year. She was a patient at Duke Hospital on several different occasions and entered there early this month.

She and her husband made their home at 1006 S. E. Broad Rd. A daughter, Mrs. Norma Taylor Brady, and grand-daughter, of San Juan, Puerto Rico, (Continued on Page 4)

Sunflower Club Entertains Its Church Official

These lovely ladies of the Sunflower Club were recently hostesses at a dinner given by the club at Persimmon Grove AME Church of Guilford, N. C. They entertained the stewards, trustees and their husbands and guest.

Rev. M. L. Johnson, pastor of the church, expressed elation at the affair.

Members of this organization standing (left to right) Mrs. Mary Alice Sapp, secretary; Mrs. Theresa Meachum, Mrs. Cassie B. Staples; Mrs. Myrtle

Morehead; Mrs. M. L. Johnson, Mrs. Odessa Staples; Mrs. Annie Hill, president; Mrs. Arnetta Jessup, vice-president; Rev. M. L. Johnson, pastor. Not seen on the picture: Mrs. Louise Judd, treasurer.