Future Bullion

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 14, 1964

PRICE 5 CENTS

BENNETT COLLEGE ADDS ELEVEN NEW FACULTY MEMBERS THIS YEA

of 11 persons to the faculty and in history. staff of Bennett College were Also fro announced this week by President Willa B. Player.

Traveling the greatest distance will be Dr. Frank H. Rand, who will be coming from the University of New England in Australia, where he served as head of the English department. Coming as exchange professor from India will be Dr. Anna Chandapillai, from Isabella Thoburn College, at Lucknow. She is no stranger to this country, however, having earned her Ph.D degree in mathematics at the University of Wisconsin.

Dr. Rand, a native of London, holds the M.A. degree from McGill University of Canada, and earned his doctorate at the University of Paris. He has contributed widely to professional history at Union Including Seminary in New York City, will be the college's second Woodrow Wilson Intern. She holds degrees from Oberlin College and Columbia University.

Miss Marilyn Fardig, of Har-711, presently working to-

Mrs. Sudie D. Sides, of Fairborn, Ohio, has been named to the history faculty. A graduate of Woman's College in Greensboro, she received her M.A. degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where she has also completed

Announcement of the addition | all course work for her doctorate

Also from Chape Hill com Also from Chape Hill comes Marvin C. Mood, of Vineland, N. J., who received his M.A. degree there after graduation from Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg, Va. He will teach political science.

Joining the English faculty will be Mrs. Virginia A. Tucker, of Greensboro, formerly of San Antonio, Texas, who received her M.A. degree from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, following gradua-tion from Southwest Texas State College, and Miss Mildred Jackson, of Spearsville, La., a graduate of Wiley College.

Returning in the areas manities and speech will be Fred A. Eady, a graduate of Howard University who received his M.A. degree from New York University. Mrs. Necia Boyers, of Greensboro, a grad-uate of Central State College at' Wilberforce, Ohio, will be rimming instr or health and physical education building which will be dedicated in October.

The Rev. A. Knighton Star ley, of Greensboro, a graduate of Talladega College and of the Yale University Divinity School, joins the religion and philoso-phy faculty. Mrs. Libbie Lofphiloso ton, of Greensboro, a Bennett graduate, will be in charge of the materials of learning labora-

Spai tarburg District Reaches Sales Goal: Makes Trip to Washington

Spartanburg District Agents at Arlhugton Cemetery are shown with guard as they prepare to place a wreath on the grave of the late President Kennedy. They are Grady Cooley, (left) and G. E. Ligon.

The Spartanburg District of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company under the managership of J. E. Williams reached its goal in a sales cam-paign conducted during the first half of the year, and as a re-sult, the entire district motored the Washington by chartered bus. Highlights of the trip were a tour of Arlington Cemetery, where they placed a wreath on the grave of the late President Kennedy; sight-seeing in the City of Washington, and special entertainment by the Washing-ton District. E. R. Williams is Washington's District Manager.

Associate Agency Director I B. Fraiser was the featured speaker at a luncheon held prior speaker at a luncheon need prior to the pilgrimage to the Ceme-tery. Following the tour, the Washington Agency held a din-ner dance for the Spartanburg District in the Agency Room of the District Office.

JOHN E. BYRD, JR.

John E. Byrd Jr. 1404 Cunningham St., dled August 13, 1964 at Camp Butner, N. C. Funeral arrangements complete.

in charge of all arrangements.

The third leading cause death in the U.S., strokes take almost 200 thousand lives each year, outranked only by heart attacks (500-thousand deaths annually) and cancer (275-thousand), according to the Greensboro Heart Association.

When the District visited Arlington Cemetery, they were provided with a special escort.

The return trip to Spartan-burg was routed through Durham where the members of the District stopped to inspect the progress of the new Home Office building.

DEATHS

WILL PRICE

Funeral service will be held Friday, 4:00 p.m. in Smith's Funeral Chapel for Mr. Will Price, of 507 Martin St., who died at home Sunday morning after a brief illness. Rev. Marion B. Jones will officiated and burial will be in Maplewood Cemetery.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Rosa Price, one daughter, Mrs. Willie P. King, two sisters and four brothers. The body will refour brothers. main at Smith's Funeral Home until the hour of service.
Smith's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

NATHANIEL HOSKINS

Graveside rites will be conducted Saturday, 4:00 p.m. in the Hoskins Family Cemetery Mr. Nathaniel Hoskins, age 54 of 715% Gibson St., who died Saturday at Cherry Hospital after a short illness.

Mr. Hoskins is survived by one sister Mrs. N. H. Coleman. Smith's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

Samuel S. Thomas. A&T Grad Receives Degree From Atlanta

Samuel S. Thomas, former Greensboro merchant and bail bondsman, has received his third college degree at the Atlanta University Summer Convoca-tion. Mr. Thomas received a Master's Degree in Guidance and Counseling. He received a B.S. from A&T College in 1944. received a Masters A&T in 1958.

Mr. Thomas is presently Director of Guidance of Negro Schools in Swansboro, Georgia, Emanuel County.

Active in Community The Negro community of Swansboro has been improved by the many activities of Mr. Thomas. As executive secretary of the Georgia Industrial De velopment and Improvement Association, Mr. Thomas has led the establishment of a library, a nursery and a boys' club for Negroes. A shirt plant employing Negro women was also established.

Future Studies Mr. Thomas is studying for Taw degree through a correspondence course offered by La-Salle University. He will take the Georgia Bar Examination next spring.

SAMUEL S. THOMAS

He is visiting his wife and children who reside at 316 Regan St.

Opening Dates for A&T Set September 10-11

Dates for the opening of the fall term of the 73rd year at A&T College were announced this week by Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy, president pre-session : Faculty Institue, set for Thursday and Fri-day, September 10-11, will set in motion a series of events which will lead to the opening of classes on Monday, September 21.

All freshman and new students, including those from the Greensboro area, are to report to the campus on Sunday. (Continued on Page 4)

Tar Heel Youth Wins Scholarship

Argustus Robert Chavis, Jr.

A 17-year-old North, Carolina youth has won a specail $500 regional scholarship for Negro 4.H Club members

He is Argustus Robert Chavis Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R.

Chavis of Winton.
Young Chavis was selected for the scholarship in competi-tion with 20 other outstanding state 4-H Club leader.

A veterans of seven years in club work, Chavis has carried a total of 34 projects in peanuts, corn, soybeans, hogs, bacco, cotton and gardening. These projects have resulted in products with a gross value of

In fact, Chavis has assumed full responsibility for running a 65-acre farm since both parents work away from home. Profits from the farm have been applied toward home improve ments and as savings for a college education

Chavis has been a county medal winner in field crops, tractor safety and soil and water management projects. He placed first in the district 4-H tobacco demonstration on two occasions, and has placed second and third in the state contest.

In 1962, he was awarded a scholarship to attend the New Farmers of America Convention in Atlants, Ga. In addition to his 4-H Club work, young Chavis is assistant superintendent of his Sunday school and a Sunday school teacher. He ranked fifth cut of Hers from 11 southern states, a class of 129 in his graduating coording to Dr. T. C. Blalock, class at the Calvin Scott Brown tate 4-H Club leader.

Community Funeral Service

200,000 Deaths from Strokes