

★ The Future Outlook ★

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook!

VOL. 24, NO. 7

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 11, 1964

PRICE 5 CENTS

$1738.36 Raised In Baby Contest At New Goshen Church

The New Goshen Methodist Church was crowded to its limits last Sunday as members and friends came to witness the closing of a one thousand, seven hundred thirty eight dollars and thirty six cent Baby Contest. Rev. Eugene Black, the pastor, expressed great delight over the fine response of the parents and friends of more than twenty babies of the contest. This contest was sponsored for the Building Fund. Pictured above are some of the winners. Harvey Shaffner Jr. and his mother; Mrs. Shaffner, Vernita Brown and her mother; Mrs. Brown, Alexander Donnell and his mother; Mrs. Donnell, Dennis Alston and his mother; Mrs. Alston, and Cherry Cotton and her mother, Mrs. Cotton. (Wise Photo)

Christmas Activities

Sunday, December 13 will mark the beginning of Christmas Activities at Celia Phelps Methodist Church, with the following activities:

11:00 A.M.—Universal Bible Sunday, when appropriate literature will be distributed.

7:30 P. M.—The Woman's Society of Christian Service will sponsor a Candlelight Service. Miss Ada Tonkins is President of the Society, and Mrs. Bessie Jones is Chairman of Program Committee.

Other activities for December, include:

Sunday December, 20

11:00 A.M.—Christmas Sunday Observance, with a Christmas Sermon by the Pastor, and the Annual "Heaven's Christmas Tree" when the Church Family will present gifts to Charity.

4:30 P.M.—The Young People will present a Christmas Program, and the Church School will sponsor a Christmas Tree for children.

6:15 P.M.—The Choir will present their annual Christmas Cantata. Mrs. Jacqueline Kerr is Pianist and (Continued on Page 4)

BETHEL A.M.E. CHURCH NEWS

Minister at Bethel

During the Western North Carolina Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church which convened in Lenoir, N. C., November 11-15, the Reverend Mr. L. S. Penn, Sr., was appointed to Bethel A. M. E. Church here. He and his family served in Raleigh, N. C. at Saint Paul A. M. E. Church for the past eleven years before coming to Greensboro.

Accompanying the minister are Mrs. Myra V. Penn, Jr., Joseph and Ruth Penn. The latter two are enrolled in the Lincoln Jr. High School here. Edward, another son, is serving in the Armed Forces in Korea, and another daughter, Mrs. Nanita Penn Riddick her daughter and husband live in Baltimore, Maryland.

Reverend Penn did his college work at Howard University and is an alumnus of the School of Religion of Howard. He has also taken a course at the University of North Carolina at Raleigh, N. C. He has served as pastor of a number of churches in the Baltimore and Washington Conferences. Before coming to Raleigh he was active in the two Ministerial Alliances of Raleigh.

Missionary Circle Meets

The Winnie Lewis Missionary Circle of Bethel A. M. E. Church will meet Thursday, December 10, 8:00 p.m. with Mrs. Irene Holt 1107 Ardmore Drive as hostess. All members are requested to be present and on time. Business of importance.

Recent Visitor

Mrs. Clara McLaughlin of McCall, S. C. has returned to her home after a pleasant visit with her daughter, Mrs. Aleece Faulkner and son-in-law, Mr. H. D. Faulkner, 903 Martin Street.

Christmas Dinner Party

Members of the Progressive Club of Bethel A. M. E. Church were highly entertained in the home of Mrs. Alice Benton, 109 Daniel Street, Thursday evening, December 3, beginning at 8 p.m. The occasion was the Club's annual Christmas dinner party, with Artis Boddie serving as host.

The house was beautifully decorated with Christmas holly, Chrysanthemums and greenery, giving the festive occasion a real holiday atmosphere.

Various types of games were played during the evening. Gifts were exchanged among members and guests.

Dinner was served buffet style. The menu consisted of roast turkey with all the trimmings, baked ham, green peas, sliced tomatoes, tossed salad, pickles hot rolls, coconut cake, fruit cake and coffee.

Guests present were the pastor, Rev. L. S. Penn, Sr. and his son, Leon S. Penn, Jr., Mrs. Ovella Capps, Mrs. Geraldine Glenn, Mrs. Ida Belle Wilkins, Dr. nad Mrs. W. T. Wiikins, Mrs. Emma Gunthrop, McDonald Pulley and Mary Ingram.

Members of the Club are, E. E. Nance, president; Mes-

(Continued on Page 4)

Dudley Thespians Presented "Ring Around Elizabeth" Dec. 8, 1964

The Dudley Thespians presented "Ring Around Elizabeth" by Charl Armstrong, Tuesday, December 8, 1964 at 8:00 P. M. in the Dudley High School Auditorium. The cast included Laurette Carpenter Styles played by Roberta Washington, Hubert Cherry played by Darryl Smith, Mercedes played by Brenda Pinson, Vida by Claudette Owens. Jennifer by Daine Miller, Elizabeth Cherry by Cynthia Hampton, Irene Oliver by Ann Cowan, Harriet Gilpin by Peggie Degraffenreid, Ralph Cherry by John Troxler, Andy Blayne by Jetson Mills, Policeman by George Caldwell, Dr. Hollister by James Warren III.

CHRISTMAS ORATORIO

The Dudley Mixed Chorus will present "Christmas Oratorio" by Camil Van Hulse on December 13, at 3:00 p.m., in the Dudley Auditorium.

TO HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The Willow Road Community Missionary Circle will hold their regular meeting Sunday, December 13, 1964 at the home of Mrs. Henry Chatman, 2111 Hunter St. Time 3:00 P. M. All members are asked to please be present as we are closing our Thanksgiving rally Mrs. Katie McGibboney, president, Mrs. Rachel Turner, reporter.

A Capacity Audience Witness "The Living Madonnas" At Bennett

A capacity audience at the "Living Madonnas" program ushered in the Christmas season at Bennett College, Sunday night in Pfeiffer Chapel.

Student models re-created on the darkened platform eight scenes portraying "Madonnas of the Catherals" — this year's theme. Music by the freshman choir, directed by Edward Lowe, accompanied each scene and Miss Charlotte Alston, college organist, provided interim music. Narration was by Miss Sandra Jenkins, of Orangeburg, S. C.

Scenes, and the students portraying them, were:

SCENE I—The Annuciation by Fra Angelica; Mary—Margarie Hamlin, of Florence, S. C.; Angel—Brenda Fox, of Greensboro;

SCENE II—The Nativity by Sandro Botticelli; M a r y — Gwendolyn Morse, of Ninety-Six, S. C.; Joseph—Ruth Latherman, of Des Moines, Iowa;

SCENE III — Adoration of the Sheperds by Martin Schongauer; Mary — Cheryl Bright, of Washington, N. C.; Shepherds — Andrea Mast, of Houston, Tex., Prathin Pattabongs, of Bangkok, Thailand, and Beatrice England, of Cincinnati, Ohio;

SCENE IV—The Virgin and Child by an anonymous 16th century French sculptor: Madonna — Theresa Hall, of Washington, D. C.;

SCENE V—The Adoration of the Magi by Pietro Cavalli-

ni; Mary — Charlotte Tenbrook, of Newport News, Va.; Joseph—Claudia Thomas, of Nashville, Tenn.; Magi—Brenda Walker of Harrisburg, Pa., Jamelle Rackley, of Orangeburg, S. C., and Shirley Robinson, of Richmond, Va.;

SCENE VI — Virgin and Child by Giovanni Bernini; Virgin—Sonja Hazard, of New York City, N. Y.;

SCENE VII—Rest During the Flight Into Egypt by Master Bertram of Minden: Mary—Cynthia Raine, of Mobile, Ala.; Joseph—Brenda Stallworth, of Brewton, Ala.;

SCENE VIII—Black Virgin by an anonymous French sculptor: Virgin—Dola Little, of Houston, Texas.

AUXILIARY TO MEET

The L. Richardson Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will hold its regular monthly meeting on Thursday, December 17, 1964 at 7:00 P.M., in the Nurses' Home. All interested persons are invited to attend. Mrs. B. W. Barnes, president.

THE FUTURE OUTLOOK SALES AGENTS GRAND CHRISTMAS PARTY WILL BE HELD

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 27
3:30 P. M.
AT THE
FUTURE OUTLOOK
OFFICE
1400 E. MARKET STREET