

The Future Outlook

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook!

VOL. 25, NO. 2

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1965

PRICE 5 CENTS

BETHEL A ME CHURCH NEWS

Annual Woman's Day at Bethel

It is a wonderful thing when there is a job to be done, we can reach out among our own for that particular talent. Miss Anna M. Cooke of Winston - Salem Teachers College, Winston-Salem, N. C. was excellent in her message to us on Sunday October 24, for our Annual Woman's Day. Speaking from the theme of the day, "New Dimensions for Women of Today," she pointed out new areas to open to women today and some of their outstanding achievements in areas of their choice.

Mrs. M. S. Henry presided.

Others appearing on the program were, Mrs. Nettie Thompson, invocation; responsive reading, led by Mes. Bessie M. Nance; the Decalogue led by Mrs. Ruth Cousins; Missionary and Public offering, Mrs. Lucy Reynolds and Mrs. Marion Edwards; announcements and acknowledgement of visitors, Mrs. Burma Wilkins. Music was furnished by a special Woman's Day Choir composed of women of Bethel, with Mrs. Ethel Anderson at the console. This service was held at the Seventh-Day Adventist Church at 11:00 a. m.

The evening service was held at Shiloh Baptist Church at 8:00 p. m. with Mrs. Maude Edwards presiding. Music was furnished by the combined choirs. Prayer was offered by Mrs. Sarah Jackson.

The highlight of the program was a panel discussion presented by members of the English Department of A. and T. College. Mrs. Mable Wright introduced Miss Mary L. Hill of Philadelphia, Pa. who served as moderator for the panel, using the theme of the day, New Dimensions For Women of Today. Miss Mary G. Kennedy of Kings Mountain, N. C., talked on positions women held in education; Miss Phyllis Mitchiner of Washington, D. C. talked on Laws that Govern us all; Miss Gloria Pantan of Kingston, Jamaica, W. I. talked on women in Science; and Miss Dolores N. Johnson of Philadelphia, Pa. talked on women in the area of Music. Offering was taken by Mrs. Henry and Mrs. Wilkins. A report of the Captains for Woman's Day, made by their Generals Mrs. Faulkner and Mrs. Gill was read by Mrs. Henry as totaling $1,359.00.

Woman's Day Committees

Mrs. M. S. Henry and Mrs. M. S. Edwards, Co-Chairmen; program, Mrs. Ethel Anderson, Miss Patsy Holt, Mrs. Bernice Legette, Mrs. Burma Wilkins and Mrs. Lois Kenny; Music, Mrs. Frances Enzlow and Mrs. Ethel Anderson; Finance, Mrs. Mildred Neal, treasurer, Mrs. Mabel Wright, Mrs. Lillian Mitchell and Mrs. Katie Dorsett; Publicity, Mrs. Hazel Harris and Mrs. Catherine F. Gill.

The Chairmen are grateful to all who contributed in any way to make this day's program a very successful one.

Floral Club

Mrs. Mary Miller of 525 Julian Street will serve as hostess for the Floral Club of Bethel Church, Sunday evening, October 31, at 5:00 p. m.

Ebony Drive

Our Ebony Drive will close November 1, 1965. Get your subscription in NOW. Subscriptions to Ebony make wonderful gifts for Christmas and all through the year. Contact Everett Hargett, Jr., or Mrs. Ida Be. Wilkins for further information

Thursday Openings Planned By Browning Chapel Methodist Church

East Market and Luther Sts.

In the Jonesboro community, the official board of Browning Chapel Methodist Church has voted to open the Church from 6 to 8 p. m. Thursdays for prayer, meditation or pastoral counseling. This Thursday will be the second week of this program.

In addition to the minister, Rev. D. S. Harkness, a layman of the church will be available to discuss some of the recent changes in the Social Security law.

We are willing to give specific directions and instruction to persons from the community who suspect that they are entitled to disability or other types of payment under the Social Security Program. The Church is located at East Market and Luther Sts. The telephone number is BR 5-4658.

Students from the colleges in the community are invited and encouraged to participate in this program.

Phillips And Grainger Lead Aggies Victory

Led by the running and catching of halfback Mel Phillips and the passing of quarterback John Granger, the A & T Aggies walloped the Winston-Salem State Rams 30-20 before 5,000 fans last week.

Phillips scored three touchdowns as he moved the ball 77 yards on the ground in 10 carries and caught four passes for 127 yards. Grange completed 8 of 13 passes for 197 yards and three touchdowns.

Winston - Salem was paced by the passing of quarterback James Miller who threw two touchdown aeriels while completing 8 of 16 for 118 yards.

A & T held only a 14-8 lead at halftime. Phillips scored both A & T first half touchdowns. He ran 21 yards for the first one, and Granger passed to halfback Willie Vaughn for the extra points. Phillips raced for the second touchdown on a 63-yard heave from Granger.

Winston-Salem scored on a 36-yard pass play from millner to end Walden Taborn.

Two touchdowns in the third quarter sewed up the game for A & T. Granger passed 23 yards to Vaughn for the first, and 43 yards to Phillips for the second. Phillips ran for two extra points, and Granger passed to Vaughn for the other two extra points.

The Aggies coasted with substitutes in the fourth quarter, as Winston - Salem salvaged two touchdowns. Millner passed eight yards to halfback Bennie Parker for one six-pointer, then flipped to halfback Van Britt for the extra points. Quarterback Roy

(Continued on Page 4)

ROYAL CROWN COLA CO. GIVES $1,000 TO UNITED NEGRO COLLEGE FUND

Shown above is Charles L. Smith of the Royal Crown Cola Co., Columbus, Ga. (left), presenting a check for $1,000 to Robert L. Cousins, Ga. state chairman of the United Negro College Fund.

In addition to its grants to foundations, RC last year gave out $250,000 in individual college scholarships through The Hatcher Fund.

Dr. Gibbs To Head A & T Historical Commission

A former president of A & T College will serve as director of the A & T College Historical Commission and curator of its Archives Room.

Dr. Warmoth T. Gibbs, president-emeritus, who retired this spring after nearly 40 years of service to the college, will serve in the dual role.

Announcement of the appointment was made last week by Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy, president of the college.

Dr. Dowdy said the Commission is being activated for the purpose "to recapture the contributions of A & T College to North Carolina and the nation through the service of past presidents, faculty, alumni and students and the progress and development of the college." He added that the Commission will seek to locate and preserve for posterity documents and artifacts also on contributions made by the race in the progress of North Carolina.

Dr. Gibbs joined the A & T faculty in 1926. Since that time he has served as instructor, dean of the School of Education and General Studies and as president from 1955 to 1960. He has been recently involved in the writing of a history of the college to be published soon.

Other members of the Commission include: Bynum C. Crews, Miss Geneva Holmes, Mrs. Eva H. Miller, J. W. R. Grandy, Dr. Frank White, Mrs. Carryc H. Kelly, Rev. Cleo M. McCoy, Dr. F. A. Williams and Ellis F. Corbett, of the college faculty and staff and alumni representatives, Dr. B. W. Barnes, and David W. Morehead, both of Greensboro, and Dr. C. T. Whitten of High Point, N. C.

SPEAKER AT A&T COLLEGE

Mr. Oscar Johnson, a Divinity student at Duke University, will be the guest speaker at the 11:00 o'clock worship service of Providence Baptist Church, October 17, 1965 in observance of their Annual Youth Week. The Providence Church services are conducted in Harrison Auditorium on the A. & T. College campus. Mr. Johnson is a recent graduate of A. & T. in Bio-Chemistry and has served as the Youth Pastor of the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, Durham, N. C. and the Fells Point Methodist Parish in Baltimore, Maryland.

Reactivated Church Group

These are officials of the Presiding Elders' Conference who met recently and reactivated the organization in the hope that it would aid in the expansion of the denomination. The presiding elders have charge of the more than 90 districts that constitute the more than one million communicants. They travel throughout the districts once every three months and attend to both the spiritual and physical needs of the memberships. L-r, front row, Rev. R. H. Rolins, C. C. Williams, New York City; Paul Marshall,

Los Angeles, Calif.; C. C. Woodruff, Dallas, Texas; M. C. Williams, Bessemer, Ala., and G. Sims Rivers, Batesville, Miss. Back row, S. A. Speight, High Point, N. C.; L. C. Ashbury, Charlotte, N. C.; H. H. Sirk, Washington, D. C., and J. Maye Roberts, Vallejo, California.