

The Future Outlook

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook!

VOL. 25, NO. 43

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, AUGUST 12, 1966

PRICE 10 CENTS

Mt. Tabor Methodist Church Dedicates New Hymnals

Rev. G. M. Phelps, pastor and members of the Mt. Tabor Methodist Church dedicated their new hymnals on Sunday evening July 31 at 3:00. The trustees of the church presented the books to the Choirs and members. Rev. J. W. Gwyn the District Superintendent conducted the dedication. The choirs, under the direction of Mrs. F. L. Enzlow and Mrs. Frances Jones sang several hymns from the book. Many ministers, visitors, and friends joined in the service. Pastor-Rev. G. M. Phelps; Reporters- Mrs. Pearl Moore and Mrs. Ozie Pankey.

Funeral Services Held For Mrs. Georgia Anna Donnell

Mrs. Georgia Anna Donnell, age 81, of 1711 Huffine Mill Road, died Saturday morning, August 6th, at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital.

Funeral services were held Monday, August 8th, 4:00 P. M.,

Clara Summers of McLeansville, North Carolina; three sons, Messrs. John C. Donnell, Willie M. Donnell and George A. Donnell all of Greensboro; twenty-seven grandchildren, thirty-three great grandchildren.

Hargett Funeral Service in Charge of Arrangements.

MARTINS' CELEBRATED ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Martin celebrated their 25th Wedding Anniversary at their home on Stafford Road in Sedalia, N. C.

Host were their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Maynard, Sr. who stood in the receiving line. Mrs. Jeanne L. Rudd introduced the guests as they arrived.

During the evening about 150 guests called at the Martins' home. They were showered with beautiful gifts of silver, also cards and telegrams.

Assisting with the serving of their guests were: Mrs. Dorothy Fuller, Miss Anne Staples, Mrs. Jean Williamson, Mrs. Nannie Sue Jones, Miss Patricia Staples, Miss Jacqueline Cole, Mr. Lonnie Cathys, Jr., and Mr. James Jones. Mrs. Lexra M. Dixon said goodbye to the guests.

Flower arrangements and decoration were blue and white.

Subscribe to THE FUTURE OUTLOOK

Final Rites Held For L. Richardson Nurse

Funeral services were held for Mrs. Janice B. Brown at 2:00 p.m. on Wednesday, August 10 at High

MRS. JANICE B. BROWN

Rock A.M.E. Church, Rev. E. W. Wilson pastor officiated.

Mrs. Brown was born March 3, 1939 in Alamance County, daughter of Andrew and Gussie Blackwell. She was educated in Guilford County Schools and was a graduate of the A&T College of Nursing, Greensboro, N. C.

She was a member and officer of the Teloca Club and of the North Carolina Chapter of the American Nursing Association. She has served on the nursing staffs in White Plains, N. Y., Richmond Community Hospital in Richmond, Virginia, and recently at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital in Greensboro, N. C.

Early in life she joined High Rock A.M.E. Church and remained a faithful and loyal member until her death.

She leaves to mourn their loss her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Blackwell of Route 1, Gibsonville, N. C.; two sisters, Mrs. Bettye E. Martin of the home, and Mrs. Sallie B. Smith of Greensboro; a brother, Pvt. Ralph C. Blackwell, U. S. Army; two nieces; two nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Smith's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER
L. A. Wise
616 Benbow Road
BR 2-4023

INVEST IN SERIES H SAVINGS BONDS

- $500—$1,000—$5,000—$10,000
- Redeemable at par
- Liberal yield — 3% when held to maturity
- Interest paid by check twice a year
- Order through your banker

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

Charles C. Spaulding, Jr. Attends Two Bar Association Meetings

Charles C. Spaulding, Jr., vice president and general counsel of the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company was in Detroit, Mich. August 3-6, to attend the annual meeting of the National Bar Association where he participated in a panel discussion on the subject: Minority Business in the American Economic Mainstream with Emphasis on Resources and Economic Growth. During August 8-12, Mr. Spaulding also attended the annual meeting of the American Bar Association held in Montreal, Canada.

A native of Durham, Spaulding is a graduate of Clark University and attended St. John's University Law School. He has been connected with North Carolina Mutual for more than 25 years and is a member of its board of directors.

He recently received two important state and national appointments. Governor Moore named him one of the representatives from the state's 100 counties that constitutes the nucleus of North Carolinians for Better Libraries, a newly formed organization aimed at improving local libraries in North Carolina. His other appointment was as a consultant in the legal services division of the Office of Economic Opportunity.

CHARLES C. SPAULDING, JR.

In addition to these new appointments, Spaulding serves as a vice president of the George H. White Bar Association; a member of the executive committee of the National Bar Association; president of the Merrick-Moore Memorial Park Association; a member of the Citizens Advisory Committee for Community Development-Urban Renewal; a member of the board of directors of the Durham County Unit of the American Cancer Society; a director of the Mechanics and Farmers Bank; and a member of governing boards of numerous civic, religious, and community organizations.

Subscribe to THE FUTURE OUTLOOK