

The Future Outlook

Greensboro Public Library
Greene St.
Box 7-4
City, N.C.

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook!

VOL. 27, NO. 7

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1967

PRICE 10 CENTS

TWENTY-SIX YOUNG LADIES INTRODUCED AT DEBUTANTE BALL

The 1967 Debutantes superbly execute the "Z" formation, a Zeta symbol, at the 17th annual Debutante Ball at A&T State University Memorial Union last Saturday night.

Miss Bannette Kay Gore receives the beautiful inscribed cup, one of several honors bestowed upon the 1967 Debutante

Queen, from Miss Marilyn Simpson, basileus of Zeta Alpha Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta sorority.

Twenty-six charming young ladies were introduced to society at the 17th Annual Debutante Ball last Saturday evening at the North Carolina A&T State University Memorial Union Ball Room, at Greensboro.

The Debutante Ball, sponsored by the Zeta Alpha and Beta Nu Zeta Chapters of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Greensboro, N. C., was the highlight of all the activities planned for the 1967 debutantes. Other activities were: June, Get-Acquainted Party; August, Cookout for Debs and Friends; October, Charm Workshops; November, Parents' Tea, Display of Talent, Entertained by Sorority at the Showboat Dinner Theater and Naming of Queen and other honors.

Using the theme, "Autumn Fantasy", the ballroom was beautifully decorated; accented with yellow chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. Warm greetings and welcome were extended by the Beta Nu Zeta Chapter Basileus, Mrs. Alfonso E. Gore. Mrs. Comey Enzlaw presented the young ladies as each walked gracefully with her father to the escort who was gallantly waiting at the end of the ballroom.

The charming Miss Bannette Kay Frances Gore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alfonso E. Gore, reigned as queen of the debs. The coronation of the queen by the first runner-up, Miss Nancy

Gilmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Gilmer, and the presentation of cup to the queen by Miss Marilyn Simpson, basileus of the Zeta Alpha Chapter, were the significant honors bestowed upon the 1967 Debutante Queen.

The choreography, directed by Mrs. Lillian Harris and Mrs. Ruth Halsey, consisted of the Debutante figure and the "Z" Formation, was beautifully executed by the young ladies. Also the Grand March, led by Miss Nancy Young, 1966 Debutante runner-up, Daddy's Dance and the Debutantes' Dance with Marshalls and Music by the Vets Combo, all were superbly appraised by the overflowing audience.

The Debutantes and Marshalls were: Misses Myrtle Barrett - Joseph Solomon; Alma Jean Bethea - Larry Fitzgerald; Paula Antoinette Bethel - Richard Scott; Flossie Joyce Boyd - Dwight Matthews; Patricia

Carpenter - Larry Meachum; Loleta Ann Chavis - Smilen Walter - Neal; Mary Elizabeth Cheek - Wayne McLendon Brim; Anne Louise Douglas - Artis Earrington; Vivian England - Paul Bethel; Yvonne Franklin - George Maxwell; Gwendolyn Fulmore - Benjamin A. Bradham; Jean Glasgow - Delaney Norcott; Barbara Gibson - Clyde Wiley; Nancy Diane Gilmer - Alfred Bost; Bannette Kay Gore - Jules Evans; Selena Hood - Laymon Williamson.

Emily M. Hooker - Joseph Moore; Carolyn McDowell - Alden Clinard; Florence C. McLeod - Ronald Gillion; Patricia Nance - Clifton Johnson, Jr.; Dorothy Patterson - Lonnie Spinks; Veronica Richmond - Rifton Daniels; Phyllis Starks - Harold Kenneth Robinson; Cathy Steadwell - Lester Douglas; Lethia Nell Talton - John Douglas; and Toni Richelle Totton - Morris Lambert.

Final Rites Held For School Teacher, Mrs. Helen Holt Alexander

Mrs. Helen Alexander

Mrs. Helen Holt Alexander of 745 Monroe St., Rockville, Md., and formerly of 1011 Bluford St., died suddenly Thursday, Nov. 30, 1967, in Rockville, Md.

She was educated in the public school of Greensboro graduating from A & T State University, receiving a Bachelor of Science in Library Science from Catholic University in Washington, D. C., receiving a Master of Science in Library Science from North Carolina College in Durham, and doing further study at Columbia University in New York City and the University of Maryland in College Park, Md. She has taught in the Guilford County, Forsythe County and Montgomery County School Systems.

She was a member of Della-brook Presbyterian Church, Winston-Salem, the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the Jacks and Jills, the National Librarian Association, the Democratic Women of Winston-Salem and Forsythe County, other librarian and teachers' organizations and

(Continued on Page 4)

Phylisia Crumpton Age 12, Dies From Auto Injuries

Phylisia Crumpton, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Crumpton, who died Sunday from injuries received when she was hit by a truck on Ashboro Street. Services were held at 2:00 p. m. Tuesday at Bethel A.M.E. Church. Rev. L. S. Penn, pastor, officiated. Burial followed in Piedmont Memorial Park.

She lived with her parents at 1202 Bellevue Street.

Survivors include her parents; three sisters, Virginia Crumpton, Sharon Crumpton and Palma Crumpton; one brother, Wayne Crumpton, all of the home.

BROWN'S FUNERAL DIRECTORS IN CHARGE OF ARRANGEMENTS.

Bethel News

First Quarterly Conference For Conference Year

The first Quarterly Conference for the conference year 1968 will convene Monday, December 11, at 8:00 p. m. in the Fellowship Hall at Bethel Church. Dr. G. S. Gant, Presiding Elder of the Greensboro District, A.M.E. Church, will preside. Dr. Gant will be the speaker at Bethel Church, Sunday, December 10, during the morning worship service.

To Observe

Fifteenth Anniversary

The Pulpit Aid Club of Bethel Church will observe their fifteenth Anniversary Sunday, December 10, at 3 p. m. at the church. The Rev. Mrs. Lucy James will be the speaker. The choir of St. Stephens A. M. E. Church of Liberty, N. C. and the Gospel Choir of Bethel will render music for the occasion. The public is cordially invited.

Handel's Messiah

Several members of the Senior Choir of Bethel Church joined other choir members from churches throughout the city and surroundings to participate in the annual program of the Oratorio Society—"Handel's Messiah" which was presented at the War Memorial Auditorium Sunday, December 3, 1967. As usual, the program was well received. Subscribed for Ebony?

The Ebony Campaign sponsored by the members of Bethel Church is being extended (Continued on Page 8)

2 SHOPPING WEEKS LEFT

CHRISTMAS SEALS fight TB and other RESPIRATORY DISEASES