To Head Heart Fund Campaign

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. McLendon, 2318 Kirkpatrick Place, will spearhead the 1968 Heart Fund campaign.

"We are happy to do this for our community, for heart disease is not only a family affair, as a businessman I know what its doing to top ranking personnel in industry," said Mr. McLendon.

"Nationally," said Mr. McLendon, "the overall economic cost of heart disease has been placed at $4 billion yearly, or about $21 per person. If that average can properly be applied to our own county population, you can readily see what an important task we have ahead."

The Heart Fund will be held during the entire month of February, culminating with Heart Sunday on the 25th. Mr. McLendon said an important way through which the individual can act to reduce the toll in death, disability, suffering and economic cost, is by contributing to your Heart Association for its programs of Research, education and community service.

Mr. McLendon is a leading businessman of Greensboro. He is Vice-President-Personnel of Burlington Industries, Inc., the world's leading and most diversified textile company. Mrs. McLendon is active in civic affairs, being member of Junior Great Books, Board of Girl Scouts. Both are members of Holy Trinity Church, where Mrs. McLendon sings in the choir.

Gate City Alumni Chapter Honors Member For Service

Marvin B. Graeber, superintendent of buildings and grounds at A&T State University, has been named winner of the first Service Award presented by the University's Gate City Alumni Chapter here.

Graeber received his award at the Chapter's annual Alumni Awards Dinner in the Red Carpet Room last week. Making the presentation was C. G. Draughn.

Graeber, a graduate of A&T, has been active in the Chapter's fund-raising activities. He is currently on the committee spearheading a campaign to raise $15,000 for scholarships.

Guest speaker for the affair was Dr. W. A. Blount, assistant president for research and development at Winston-Salem State College.

Dr. Blount said the duty of good alumni is to become concerned, informed, involved, and committed in society. "To become concerned is to become dissatisfied with one's environment," he added.

Other awards presented included the "Miss Gate City" award to Mrs. Agnes H. Green, the annual scholarship award to Miss Virginia Brown and the "Miss Buildings and Grounds" award to Mrs. Ernestine Chisholm.
