

The Future Outlook

Keep Up With The Times — Read The Future Outlook!

VOL. 27, NO. 23

GREENSBORO, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1968

PRICE 10 CENTS

Officially In Race For N. C. House Seat

Atty. Henry E. Frye of Ford County Board of Elections, Greensboro, N. C. pays check while Mrs. Frye looks on. Atty. Frye is seeking nomination for one of county's seats in North Carolina General Assembly.

Poplar Grove School P-TA Collects $2,238.75; The Event Was A King And Queen Contest

(James Bell and Alvarado Fuller named King and Queen of Poplar Grove)
Parents and patrons of the Poplar Grove School Community collected a total of $2,238.75 evening of March 15 to be used for school enrichment programs for children at the school. The special event was the annual crowning of King and Queen of the Poplar Grove School P.T.A. Over 300 parents and community leaders were on hand to hear reports of their efforts and register their support of the school, faculty and its program. James Bell and Alvarado Fuller were tops among the 16 contestants reporting a total of $513.53. Other contestants and amounts reported were as follows: Fred Donahue and Eunice Troxler, $415.56; James Scales and Jane Guy, 300.32; Micheal Brown and Rhonda Hopkins, $258.00; Clark Graves and Teresa Hayes, $207.99; Ted Roberston and Janice Buie, $204.85; Reginald Watlington and Sylvia Woods, $175.00, and Howard Richardson and Merrill Bass, $163.50.

Special features of the program included a solo by Mrs. Pauline Rankin, music by Miss Gwendolyn Bell, greetings by Mr. Marion Strickland, introduction of contestants by Mrs. Virginia Little, crowning of contestants by Mrs. Jessie Richardson, presentation of gifts by Mrs. Marie Donahue, and financial reports by Mr. M. R. Holmes, principal of the school.

John C. Scarborough In Race For County Commissioners Post

John Clarence "Skeepie" Scarborough, III, a third generation Durham citizen, today announced he would seek a seat on the County Commission in the May 4 primary.

A native of Durham, Scarborough, 30, is Assistant Manager of Scarborough & Hargett Funeral Home, Inc., with which his family has been associated since 1888.

In a statement accompanying his candidacy, Scarborough said "The crises which confronts our community today can best be solved by broadening the base of the policy making bodies which plan the guidelines for our local, county, state, and national agencies.

"I believe that the experiences which I have had as a citizen in the Durham community for many years in addition to my formal training and wide contacts would enable me to make a constructive contribution to the improvement of life for all citizens in the Durham community. As a businessman, I am sensitive to the problems of attracting industry to our area and in developing more jobs for our people. If elected, I will serve without favor to any segment of the Durham population; on the contrary I will studiously acquaint myself with the issues that confront our community, and I will act at all times in the best interest of the overall Durham community."

Scarborough is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Scarborough, Jr. of 1406 Fayetteville Street, and the grandson of J. C. Scarborough, Sr., who is also the founder of the Scarborough Nursery School. The younger Scarborough was born in Durham on September 14, 1937. He was educated at Westtown Preparatory School, Westtown, Pennsylvania, Palmer Memorial Institute, Ohio University, North Carolina College, (B.S., 1960) and Eckels College of Mortuary Science.

Active at many levels in the community, Scarborough is a junior steward at St. Joseph's A. M. E. Church and a member of the church's Layman's League. He is also a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, the N. A. A. C. P., the One O'Clock Luncheon Club, the Durham Committee on Negro Affairs. In addition he is a Free and Accepted Mason, Doric Lodge No. 28, Consistory 218, Shriners, Zafa Temple No. 176.

Other activities include Assistant Adviser of Explorer Scouts, Post No. 105, Junior Chamber of Commerce, member of the North Carolina Advisory Board of Ambulance Service, Assistant Secretary of the Campus Hills Community Council, Durham Business and Professional Chain, Member of Advisory Board of Operation Breakthrough.

He is married to the former Clara Richardson, of Wendell, North Carolina, and they reside at 1802 South Alston Avenue.

BETHEL A.M.E. CHURCH NEWS

By C. F. Gill
The Rev. Dr. M. Arthur Camper Men's Day Speaker at Bethel
Men's Day will be observed at Bethel A.M.E. Church, Sunday, March 31. Rev. M. Arthur Camper of Baltimore, Md., will be the guest speaker during the morning worship service, at 11:00 a. m.
The Rev. Camper was born in Baltimore, Md. He was converted at an early age and joined Trinity A.M.E. Church there, where his parents were members.
He was educated in the public schools in Baltimore, Lincoln University of Pennsylvania, where he earned the A.B. and B.D. degrees. He has done further study at Virginia State and the University of Virginia. The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred on him at Kittrell College. He has done graduate work at A. and T. State University, where he earned the degree of Master of Science.

Dr. Camper has pastored in Maryland, Salem and Hampton, Virginia, and Winston-Salem, N. C. He taught at Carver School and was principal at Hollins Elementary School in Virginia, and served as Counselor for Financial Aid in the Office of Admission and Placement at Morgan State College in Baltimore, Maryland.
As President of Kittrell Junior College, Kittrell, N. C., Dr. Camper greatly improved the curriculum and scholarship advantages during his tenure there.
Our speaker has also written several musical compositions, and was presented in a "Modern Creative Concert Recital" at St. James A.M.E. Church in Winston-Salem, N. C. while he pastored there. All music in the concert was selected from works composed by Dr. Camper since 1951.

Dr Camper is now the instructor in special education in the Baltimore School system, and serves as associate pastor at Trinity, his home church. He is married to the former Miss Anna Mae Cooper who nobly assists and encourages him. They are the proud parents of four talented children.
Artis Boddie and Arthur Allen will serve as chairmen for the Men's Day program. The Male Chorus of Bethel will furnish music.
At 7:30 p. m., a panel discussion will be conducted on the subject, "What Is Black Power?" Students from A. and T. State University and Dudley High School will appear on the panel. A question and answer period will follow. The public is especially invited.
Sacrificial Tea
The three Stewards Boards of Bethel Church will sponsor a

A silent prayer for peace at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier at Arlington cemetery. About 3,000 persons joined in the service led by (l. to r.) Rev. Martin Luther King; James Abernathy, assistant to Mr. King; Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath, President of The Union of American Hebrew Congregations; Rabbi Abraham Heschel of the Jewish Theological Seminary. The meeting was sponsored by Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam.
Symbols uttered the unspoken word. The Torah Scroll, which had belonged to President John F. Kennedy is carried by Rabbi Eisendrath. He had presented the Torah to the late President at a White House ceremony in 1961 on behalf of the UAHC.
Following the assassination, the Kennedy Family temporarily returned the Torah to the UAHC Religious Action Center in Washington to hold until the completion of the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library where it will find its permanent home. The 200-year-old scroll previously belonged to the founder of American Reform Judaism, Rabbi Isaac Mayer Wise, who brought it from Bohemia when he came to this country to escape religious persecution.

(Continued on Page 4)