Nation Mourns Death Of Martin Luther King

The Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr., Nobel Peace Prize civil rights leader, was shot fatally in Memphis, Tenn., Thursday night while leaning over a second-floor railing outside his motel room.

DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING

"I and all the citizens of Memphis," Holloman said, "regret the murder of Dr. King and all resources at our and the state's command will be used to apprehend the person or persons responsible."

The 39-year-old Negro leader's death was reported by Frank Holloman, director of Police and Fire Departments, after he had been taken to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Police broadcast an alarm for "a young white male, well dressed" who was reported to have been seen running after the shooting.

Later they reported two persons had been picked up several blocks from the scene of the shooting.

Still later, the police reported a Browning automatic rifle with telescopic sights had been dropped by a fleeing suspect.

Four thousand National Guard troops were ordered into Memphis by Gov. Buford Ellington after Dr. King's death. A curfew was imposed.

Chief Troy W. Herbin Of Athens, Ga. Is Visting Here

Troy Webster Herbin, SDC USN (Ret.), son of Mrs. Mary Herbin and the late Rev. Joseph H. Herbin of Freeman Mill Rd., and husband of the former Mary E. Pound of Athens, Ga., are spending several weeks in Greensboro with relatives. They are enroute to their home in Annapolis, Md., having arrived here March 19, from California where he was discharged. They will remain here until the GGO Tournament is ended. A Golf fan, himself, and a versatile player, he plans to attend, the fete.

A graduate of the James B. Dudley High School, he enlisted in the Navy immediately following graduation, with the class of 1945. Herbin has served in many fleet of the USN and was returned from Viet Nam in January, 1968. He was attached to the Joint Army and Navy Mobile Riverine Force of Coronado Amphibious Base, California, which operates in the Mechkong Delta. He served as Chief on The River Flotilla, a ship's story that was shown on television last fall, from Viet Nam.

While serving in Viet Nam, he was awarded The Viet Nam Service Medal (second award) and the Republic of Vietnam Campaign Medal. Prior to the Viet Nam Conflict, he holds the Good Conduct Medal with Four Bronze Stars, the World War II Victory Medal, The European Occupation Medal, The National Service Medal and the American Theatre of Operations Medal.

CHIEF TROY W. HERBIN

He retired March 1, 1968, at the Naval Receiving Station, Treasure Island, California.

Like most veterans, he speaks little of the war in Viet Nam, yet, he has said that the United States position in Viet Nam is worth while considering the ignorance and poverty of the natives for the most part.
