"Men of Great Dimensions"

This was the theme used for the Men's Day observance Sunday, March 31, at Bethel Church. The guest speaker, Dr. M. A. Camper, Instructor of Special Education in Baltimore, Md. was superb in delivering the morning message, using the theme for the day, "Men of Great Dimensions," and added "Join The Revolution" — the Christian Revolution. Rev. S. O. McLaughlin presided during the service.

Others appearing on the program were as follows: Invocation, J. C. Harrison; Scripture Reading, "The Higher Justice," from the A.M.E. Hymnal, by Colen Craven; Decalogue, Rev. E. C. McClellan; Offering, Dr. W. T. Wilkins and Victor H. Robinson; Announcements and Acknowledgment of Visitors, Leon S. Penn, Jr.; Second Scripture Reading, Rev. L. S. Penn, Sr.; Introduction of Speaker, Phillip Cole; Speaker, Dr. Camper.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Male Chorus of Bethel, with Mrs. Comey Enzlow at the console.

The evening service at 7:00 p. m. was presided over by Dr. J. E. Marshall, faculty member of A. and T. State University. Music was furnished by the Male Chorus of Bass Chapel. A panel discussion, conducted by Dr. J. E. Marshall on the subject, "What is Black Power?" Participants were students from
