O God, open our eyes and sensitize our spirits that in some common experience of this day we may sense thy glory and respond in life-giving belief. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

A & T GRANTED $31,000 BY FORD FOR UNIQUE SUMMER INSTITUTE

The Ford Foundation this week announced a grant of $31,710 to A&T State University for a two-week summer workshop for persons who direct student dormitories and residence halls.

A&T President Dr. Lewis C. Dowdy said that Dr. Gloria D. Scott, administrative assistant to the president, will conduct the workshop June 9-23. He said that 50 persons from 25 predominantly - Negro colleges and universities will participate in the program.

This is the first grant by the Ford Foundation to assist in the development of dormitory counselors and residence hall directors.

"We are pleased with this opportunity," said Dr. Scott. "As larger numbers of students enroll in institutions of higher learning, residence halls have become more than just living centers. The importance of adequately trained persons to function in residence halls is well established."

Dr. Scott said that group discussion, lectures, case studies and dialogue with students will be used in the workshop. Curriculum for the counselors will include administration, program development, personal and ethical standards and supervision.

Besides Dr. Scott, who holds the B.A., M.A. and Ph.D degrees from Indiana University, the staff will consist of Dr. Isaac Bivens, former dean of students at Houston-Tilston College in Austin, Tex., and Miss Adah Edwards, financial aid director at Knoxville College.

A & T Professor TO Conduct Summer Institute

Dr. Gloria D. Scott, professor and administrative assistant to the President at A&T State University, has been granted $31,710 from the Ford Foundation to conduct a Summer Workshop for residence hall personnel. Participants from 25 Negro colleges will attend the Workshop at A&T June 9-23.

sports editor; Willie Mai Leach, Pittsboro, N. C., fine arts editor; Pamela Jo Wall, Greensboro, fashion editor; Magdalene House, Robersonville, N. C., exchange editor; and Richard Newkirk, Ivanhoe, N. C., literary editor.
