Well-Known Civic Leader Honored

DR. MOSE KISER

Citation Remarks by Chancellor James S. Ferguson

MOSE KISER—distinguished citizen, business leader, good and faithful servant of your church, master of the art of human relations. Nationally recognized in your profession, you are honored in your own community as a man of good deeds and noble aspirations, a moving spirit in seeking the betterment of your fellowmen. By your long and unselfish service to your alma mater, the North Carolina

State University at Raleigh, and to the Home Economics Foundation of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, you have demonstrated your confidence in our young people and your concern for their future.

Mr. Kiser, I now confer upon you the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters with all its rights and privileges.

This is what was used by the Sponsoring Department at the University, by Dr. Naomi Albanese, Dean of the School of Home Economics at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro.

Mr. Mose Kiser is a well-known civic leader, successful businessman, effective religious layman, and humanitarian. Mr. Kiser is a man whose name is synonymous with good deeds and noble actions. His interests are many and varied. To his many endeavors he has given unselfishly of his time, knowledge, and energies, and has shown a restless but fruitful search for the betterment of his fellowman.

He is an artist in meeting and mastering his civic responsibilities.

Veterans Administration News

EDITOR'S NOTE: Veterans and their families are asking thousands of questions concerning the benefits their Government provides for them through the Veterans Administration. Below are some representative queries. Additional information may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—I receive a monthly compensation check from the Veterans Administration. I have recently had a change of address. Should I report the change to the VA or the Treasury Department?

A—Your change of address should always be reported to the VA Regional Office where your records are located.

Q—I am interested in the new Modified Life plan of government insurance I have been reading about. I now hold $10,000 of government insurance. Where can I get more specific information about the Modified Life plan?

A—Write to the Veterans Administration Regional Office where your records are held or to the VA insurance office (Philadelphia or St. Paul) where your premiums are paid. Ask for a copy of VA Pamphlet 29-22 which discuss the benefits of this plan.

Q—I read recently that the Post-Korean G.I. Bill is two years old. I got out of service in 1965 after four years in the Army. Am I eligible for education and training benefits under this bill? If so, how long do I have before my entitlement expires?

A—First, and most important, you are eligible for education and training benefits under the Post-Korean G. I. Bill. This third generation G.I. bill was enacted for veterans who served for at least 180 days consecutively in the Armed Forces some of which was after Jan. 31, 1955.

CHARLES A. LEDBETTER

The Editor and Staff of the Future Outlook regret the loss of one of their most faithful helpers at Deal Printing Company. Charles Albert Ledbetter had been associated with the Future Outlook for many years and his last day's work was getting the May 31 issue ready to go to press on Thursday, the 30th.

Mr. Ledbetter, better known as Charlie, was 55 years of age and made his home at 1016 Portland Street. He suffered from a heart condition and had an attack when he arrived at work on Friday morning soon after 8 o'clock. He was dead on arrival at Wesley Long Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Forbis and Dick Memorial Chapel. Burial was at Shiloh Methodist Church cemetery in Julian.

He was a faithful member of Florida Street Baptist Church.

His survivors are sisters Mrs. Ferrell May and Mrs. Edison Owens, both of Greensboro, and Mrs. W. F. Mitchell, Jacksonville, Fla.

Average age for the 1.88 million WW I veterans is 73, says the VA.

PFC. GEORGE WALLINGTON, JR.

Funeral service for Pfc. George Wallington, Jr., was conducted at Brown's Funeral Home Chapel, Friday, May 31, 1968 at 4:00 p. m. Rev. Morris L. Johnson, pastor of Poplar Grove A. M. E. Church, Greensboro, N. C., officiated.

Burial was in the Veterans Plot at Maplewood cemetery.

MRS. OLIVIA CARMACK MILTON

Mrs. Olivia Carmack Milton, age 34, of 419 Troxler Road, Greensboro, died Sunday, June 2, at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Garden of Prayer Holiness Church. Rev. Cecil Reid officiated and burial followed in the Green Hall cemetery.

She is survived by her husband, Leroy Milton; four sons, Howard Leroy Milton, Charlie Mack Milton, James Alexander Milton and Keith Milton, all of the home; one daughter, Bettie Louise Milton, of the home; one sister, Mrs. Ophelia Milton, and one brother, Fletcher Carmack.

The remains were placed in state at the Garden of Prayer Holiness Church on Tuesday evening when the family met their friends.

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of arrangements.

A TRIBUTE

All of us in the Begonia Garden Club have suffered a great loss in the passing of our member, Mrs. Banie Lyons. The news of her untimely death came as a great shock. The simplicity and sweetness of her character endeared her to us. We feel, in her passing, a loss too great to put into words. We will miss her friendliness and charm of personality. The Club will be deprived of a valuable officer, a loyal member and a faithful friend.
