

FUNERAL SERVICES HELD FOR

MR. MAJOR B. HOLLOWAY
Mr. Major B. Holloway, age 51, an instructor of automotive technology at A&T State University, died Wednesday, June 26th in the Veterans Administration Hospital, Durham, N. C., after a brief illness. He lived at 2207 Ashley Street.

Funeral service was held Saturday, June 29th, 1:00 p.m. in Richard B. Harrison Auditorium on the A&T Campus. Burial followed in Beechwood Cemetery, Durham, N. C.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Lillian Bullock Holloway; sons, Major Holloway Jr., Herbert Holloway, Joseph Holloway, Quentin Holloway and Reginald Holloway, all of Greensboro, and Harold Holloway, Takli Air Force Base, Thailand; four brothers, Joseph S. Holloway, Jr., Charlottesville, Va., Quentin Holloway, Greensboro, Hilliary Holloway, Philadelphia, and John Mills Holloway, Raleigh, N. C.; and five sisters, Mrs. Anna Morris, Mrs. Margaret Arrington and Miss Lily Holloway, all of Philadelphia, Pa., Mrs. Roxie H. Moore, Charlottesville, Va., and Mrs. Josephine Brower, Greensboro.

Brown's Funeral Directors in charge of arrangements.

MR. LONNIE W. BELL, JR.
Mr. Lonnie William Bell, Jr. age 20 of 4911 Troxler Road, Greensboro, N. C. died Thursday morning, June 28th at L. Richardson Memorial Hospital. He was in an auto accident June 21, 1968.

Funeral services were held Sunday, June 30th at White Oak Grove Baptist Church, at 3:00 p.m. Burial followed in the church cemetery. Rev. R. L. Moore, pastor, officiated.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Bell of the home; four sisters, Mrs. Katherine McMurtry of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Virginia Patterson of Greensboro, Miss Ruby Bell of Detroit, Mich. and Miss Wilhelmina Bell of the home; one brother, Sherman Bell of the home, and one half brother, A. C. Hendrick of China Grove, N. C.; fourteen aunts, ten uncles, three nieces, a host of other relatives and friends.

The family met their friends Saturday night at Hargett Funeral Home from 7 to 9.

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of all arrangements.

MR. JOHN FRANK McNEIL
Mr. John Frank McNeil, age 49, of 401 Gillespie Street, died Tuesday, June 25, 1968 at L. Richardson Hospital.

Funeral services were held Sunday night, June 30 at 7:30 p.m. from the Hargett Memorial Chapel. Rev. Isaac Harris officiated and burial followed in the Maplewood Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Annie Bell McNeil of the home; two daughters, Miss DeLois McNeil and Miss Betty McNeil both of Fayetteville, N. C.; one brother, Lonnie McNeil of Philadelphia, Pa.; seven grandchildren; a host of relatives and friends.

The family met their friends from 7 to 9 p.m. at Hargett's Funeral Home.

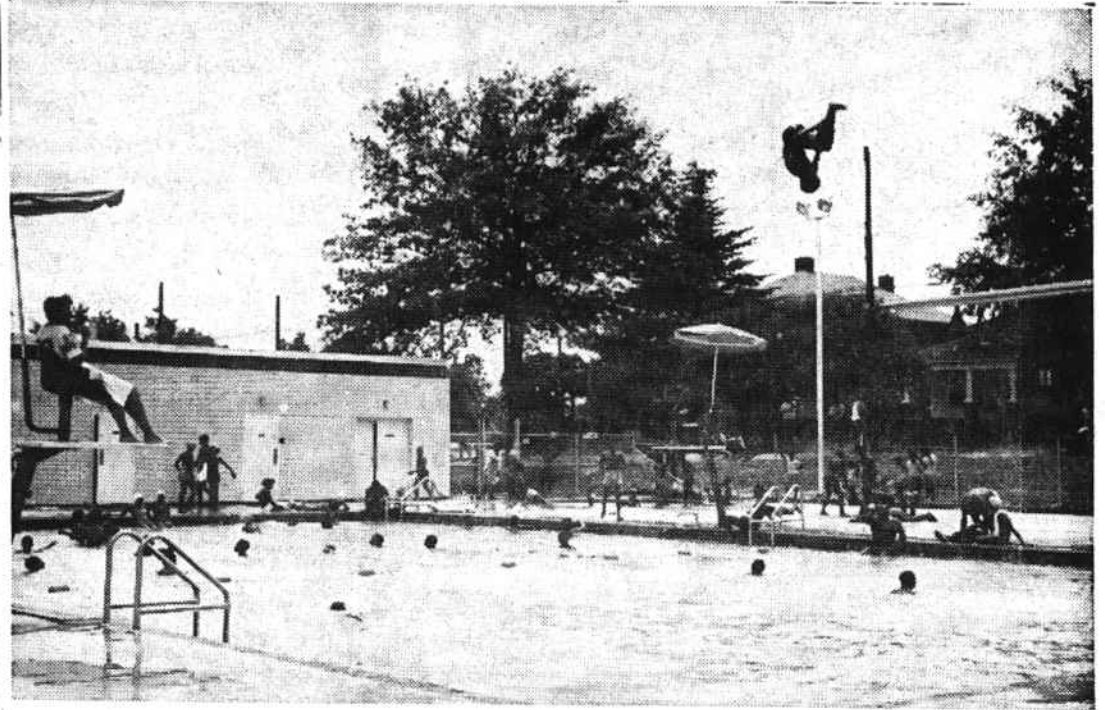

Hargett Funeral Service in charge of all arrangements.

MR. CHARLIE GRAY
Final rites were held Wednesday, July 3 at St. James Baptist Church for Mr. Charlie Gray of 1115 Ogden St., who died Saturday at L. Richardson Hospital after several years of illness. Rev. Prince Graves, pastor, officiated and burial was in Piedmont Memorial Park.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Mabel T. Gray; 4 brothers, Andrew, and Leroy Gray both of Seneca, S. C. and Thomas and Samuel Gray of Washington, D. C.; 3 sisters, Mrs. Mattie Cherry of Seneca, S. C.; Mrs. Louise Earl of Brooklyn, N. Y. and Mrs. Alberta Landam of Columbus, Ohio.

Smith's Funeral Directors in charge of service.

The Veterans Administration pays out $2.3 billion annually in non-service-connected benefits to needy veterans, widows and parents of veterans.

The Windsor Center Is The 4th Of July Attraction

The big July 4th activities will be held at the Windsor Community Center. They will begin at 10:00 A.M. in the swimming pool with the regular city-wide children featuring back strokes, race-swimming, high-diving and several other activities in the swim line. These swimmers will range in ages from 8-12.

In the big air conditioned gymnasium, the teenagers will feature dancing and several other in-door activities. The adults will feature card games in the private club rooms.

The big competition ball game will be held in the afternoon, at the corner of Lee and Duke

Streets, under the lights. Over 1,000 hot dogs will be given to children twelve years old and under.

Several churches throughout Guilford County and North Carolina will hold picnics at the Center, starting from 9:00 A.M.-9:30 P.M.

LOCAL MEN ELECTED TO VW SALES GUILD

Edward H. Alexander, general manager of Alexander Motors of Greensboro, Inc., today announced the appointment of three of the VW dealership's salesmen to membership in the Volkswagen Sales Guild.

Wilbur C. Berry, Charles F. Campbell, and Julius H. Vaughn, all of the Greensboro VW dealership, were among 104 VW salesmen from 5 mid-Atlantic states whose sales accomplishments were recognized at a special awards banquet June 29 in Washington, D. C. The local trio received plaques and lapel pins as new members of the VW Sales Guild, a professional organization of VW salesmen from throughout the United States. Guild membership recognizes both outstanding sales accomplishment and the quality of assistance which salesmen provide VW owners before, during, and after their purchases.

All three local men are North Carolina natives. Berry, of Rt. 2 in Greensboro, was born in Pleasant Garden and served with the U. S. Army before he joined Alexander Motors. He has been a salesman there for the past five years.

Campbell is a Greensboro native and resides at 1512 Summit Ave. He is a veteran of Army service during World War II, and has more than eight years of auto sales experience.

Julius Vaughn, also a Greensboro native, graduated from Rankin High School and has been a VW salesman with Alexander Motors since August, 1964. Vaughn resides at Route 2 in Brown Summit, N. C.

The three new Guild members are all married and active in local civic affairs. Berry has been director of the Guilford Wildlife Club for three consecutive years and Campbell is active in P.T.A. activities. Vaughn has been club director for the Northeast Civitan Club since the group was organized five years ago.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

A Community Vacation Bible School was held in our Community at 401 Banks Street from June 17 through June 28, 1968. This school, sponsored by the Childrens Mission, was a special effort for the benefit of the children out of school who do not attend church. Sessions were held daily from 9-12 A.M. All children aged 6-12 were invited to attend. Mrs. Galveston McNeil, Director of Children's Mission is a member of Shiloh Baptist Church.

DRIVE SANELY

May we wish you a safe and happy Fourth and remember safety begins with you—on the highway, in the home or wherever and however you celebrate the holiday.

THE BASKETBALL CLOWN HAS HIS SERIOUS SIDE

By George Usher

Middle Island — "I consider myself an athlete . . . It's boring sometimes . . . You play in two frames of mind . . ." Joe Byers, a Greensboro boy, was saying to the seniors in his wife's class in creative writing at Longwood High.

Joe Byers, 27 and a former varsity basketball player at Shaw University in Raleigh, N. C., is a professional basketball player of sorts. He gets paid to play guard for the Harlem Astronatus, an all-Negro team similar to the Harlem Globetrotters.

The Astronatus ended their six-month season last week. "We played three college schedules (about 75 games), traveling 100,000 miles by bus all over," Byers said. "I only saw my wife for two weeks in that time."

Mary Byers, a teacher of English at Longwood High, decided to draft her husband for an interview in her creative writing course. A few of her students had done stories on sports before. Now they would do a feature story on her husband.

Joe Byers isn't a well-known sports figure, but he is a big man to the youngsters in Gordon

(Continued on Page 4)

MRS. C. S. HATCHETT

Final rites were held Wednesday, July 3 at Trinity A.M.E. Zion Church for Mrs. Carylee S. Hatchett of 1802 Larkin St., who died Sunday at Moses Cone Memorial Hospital after a few days serious illness. Rev. Cecil Bishop, pastor officiated and burial was in Maplewood Cemetery.

Mrs. Hatchett is survived by her husband Sam Hatchett, 3 daughters: Mrs. Agnes H. Wharton, Mrs. Doris N. Watkins both of Greensboro and Mrs. Helen H. Hawkins of Jackson, N. C.; 4 brothers: Rev. Robert Sharpe, Caldwell and James Sharpe all of Greensboro and Cicero Sharpe of Jacksonville, Fla.; 3 sisters: Mrs. Willie Mae Roberson, Miss Connie Sharpe and Miss Beulah Sharpe all of Greensboro, and her step-mother Mrs. Mollie Sharpe of Greensboro.

Smith's Funeral Directors in charge of service.