Veterans' Corner

NO. 34

Editor's Note: Below are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to some of the many current questions from former servicemen and their families. Further information on veterans benefits may be obtained at any VA office.

Q—My sister is married to a World War I veteran who draws 100 per cent service-connected disability compensation. As his health is extremely bad and he is in his 70's, I am concerned about her financial welfare in the event of his death. Will she be entitled to any benefits as the widow of a disabled veteran?

A—Possibly. If a veteran dies as a result of a service-connected disability, his widow is eligible for death compensation. This amounts to $120 monthly, plus 12 per cent of the monthly basic pay now being received by a serviceman whose rank and years of service are the same as those of deceased veteran.

If the veteran's death is not the result of a service-connected disability, the widow may be eligible for a pension from the Veterans Administration. Detailed information may be obtained from the VA Regional Office where her husband's veteran records are kept.

Q—I am a war veteran but have never asked for any benefits from the Veterans Administration. Can I get a free medical examination?

A—Medical examinations are made by VA only in connection with an application for some sort of benefit, such as hospitalization, or to determine if a condition is service-connected. The VA is not permitted to give a veteran a free examination for

A&T ALUMNI GIVING RISES 800 PERCENT IN 5-YEAR PERIOD

LEADS A&T ALUMNI FUND DRIVE

David W. Morehead, Greensboro, N. C., as chairman of the A&T State University Annual Alumni Giving Program, in five years has increased the fund over 800%. He is secretary of the Greensboro Hayes-Taylor YMCA, and an alumnus of the university.

Gifts to A&T State University by its Alumni Association have increased more than eight times during the last five years.

This information was included in the year-end report released this week by the University Office of Alumni Affairs. The report showed that alumni gave in the Annual Fund a total of $58,802.32, approximately $51,500 more than the $7,332.74 they gave the university in 1964.

The 1968 contribution was a record gift, marking the climax of a steady rise in alumni giving since its beginning at A&T back in 1956.

The mainspring behind the A&T Alumni Giving Program is soft-spoken David W. Morehead, a Greensboro native and executive secretary of the Hayes-Taylor YMCA, and who serves as national fund raising chairman for the alumni group.

When Morehead was appointed to head the campaign in 1965, things began to happen. Total alumni giving jumped 62.9 per cent from a little over $13,000 in 1964 to $22,120.98 the following year. The program has been moving fast ever since. In 1967 A&T alumni gave $38,302.31 for a 73.1 per cent increase. There was a $20,500 increase in 1968 over 1967.

Morehead, who has had years of fund-raising experience with the local "Y", and in which each year his own campaign has exceeded its goal, gives all of the credit to a corps of volunteer workers in the alumni group who live in every section of the country — from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from Texas to Wisconsin.

He also gives lots of credit to the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, which through the Cooperative College Development Program, of which A&T is a member, in 1965 offered a matching gift of up to $33,000 on a dollar-for-

HARLEM CULTURAL FESTIVAL AFRICAN MUSIC FESTIVAL

Last Sunday, Harlem returned to its Motherland as Tony Lawrence's Harlem Cultural Festival before a crowd of 15,000. By far the most colorful of his first three productions, Lawrence, the producer and director gave his many fans and admirers another exciting and fun-filled show.

Naturally the center of attraction for the afternoon was Miriam Makeba, the internationally famed singer from South Africa. Dressed in a beautiful beige African gown with black sequin designs and a black turban, Miss Makeba sang a medley of tunes both in English and her native tongue that kept the audience listening for sixty minutes. Among the more familiar were "What is Love", "Pata Pata", "Who Needs Love", and the "Click Song". Also included in her repertoire were Jeremy Taylor's "A Piece of Ground" song in Broadway hit "Wait a Minute" and "Mas Que Nada" a Brazilian tune made popular by Sergio Mendes' vocal group.

All in all, Miss Makeba gave a convincing performance and Harlem loved every minute of it.

The La Roque Bey Dancers and Drummers, a group of mostly high school students from the local area, were very impressive with their interpretive African dancing. Formed 12 years ago, they have grown to become one of the most popular and respected groups of performers in Harlem. Last year in an appearance at Town Hall, these youngsters received excellent reviews by both the press and Mayor John Lindsay. They have also appeared at the Appollo Theater, Expo '67 and the World's Fair held in New York three years ago.

Also appearing Sunday was Irwin C. Watson, a young West Indian-born comedian who has all the ingredients to become one of America's top names in this field of entertainment. In one of his anecdotes, he said he used to have a phobia about flying in airplane. His mother tried to convince him that when the Lord decided it was time for him to go, there would be nothing he could do about it. Replied Watson, "Yeah that may be true,
