White Rock Baptist Church Completes Plans For Ground Breaking

The White Rock Baptist Church has completed plans for breaking ground soon for the above proposed church building. It consists of a sanctuary which will seat 1,000 persons; an administration area including a church library; an educational wing and a basement underneath the sanctuary; 32 classrooms; facilities for a 50 children's Day Nursery; a multi-purpose area in the basement which will seat 350 persons at a banquet; a modern kitchen; changing rooms for baptismal candidates and will be air conditioned. The building consists of approximately 28,000 square feet of floor space.

The church office is located between the sanctuary and the educational wing (to the right of the sanctuary), and includes a reception area, a work room, library, secretary's office and pastor's study.

The exterior will consist of Alabama Limestone, Split Face (Ashlar). Paved off street parking will be provided for 175 cars, which will be extended later.

The church's organ which was used in the former church building is being rebuilt by the Moller Organ Company in Hagerstown, Maryland.

The church membership of 1,250 active members have been worshipping in B. N. Duke Auditorium, North Carolina College since September of 1967 when the former church building which was founded in 1866 at 600 Fayetteville Street, was taken by Durham's Redevelopment Commission to make way for the expressway.

The church was pastored by the Rev. Dr. Miles Mark Fisher from 1932-1965. He now lives in Richmond, Va. It has been pastored by Lorenzo A. Lynch since September 1, 1965.

The congregation has almost completed negotiations with the J. M. Dixon, Inc., contractors of Greensboro, the lowest bidder on the proposed construction. Sealed bids were opened July 18.

The congregation has a little (Continued on Page 8)
